Weekly Update 04/29/2024 – Week #3

Week three saw Mother Nature decide that we had enough nice weather so she decided to initiate the league with some showers. It started light, but as the night went on it got heavier. The league got in the round, but most of them showed up in the clubhouse drenched. Most of the scores were a bit on the higher side, but two of our players must be used to playing in difficult situations. Charlie Lehman & Jordan Murray both came into the clubhouse with par rounds and kudo's to them persevering the weather and the course conditions to be able to shoot well.
