TEAM #B6 (BILL FOLSON & DINO DETOMASO) START OUT THE SEASON IN FIRST PLACE, WITH BOTH PLAYERS USING SUBS THAT POSTED 25 POINTS ON THEIR BEHALF!!!

B1: Ken Kelchner (44) / Denny Obenauer (48):

Ken played steady for the opening day round, especially playing the blind. Ken posted pars on holes #2, #4 & #7. He struggled a bit on the final two holes costing him back to back doubles. Still a nice round to start the season as he takes 11 points against the blind in a round of (44).

Denny played a bit above his handicap, but still managed to split points with the blind. Denny posted his only par on the final hole in his round.

Denny got bit by 4 doubles that took his round down. Good effort Denny on the first night against an invisible foe.

B2: Steve Miramonti (abs) / Kurt

Lorenger (abs): Neither player made it to the league on the 11th of May.

B3: Ernie Danos (60) / Steve

Fleck (abs): Ernie had his troubles in the first week of competition. Ernie nailed his only par of the round on the long par 5, hole #2. Four holes took their toll on his round of (60), as he posted two quads and two holes that cost him an additional extra strokes for each hole. A valiant effort Ernie. Steve was unable to make it to league.

B4: Larry Ball (53) / Norm Giraud

(55): Larry had a rough start to his round as he posted back to back doubles. He made a decent recovery posting bogeys on the next two Holes before again getting stung by a couple more doubles. The final two holes did the balance of damage with a couple of triples. Good try Larry. Partner Norm came in right behind Larry with a (55). The first three holes did extensive damage, costing him 9 extra strokes. He highlighted his round with two very nice birdies, notching both of them on the par threes. The last two holes added an additional 6 strokes to do the rest of the damage to his round. A couple of nice birdies Norm and good try on the round.

KEN KELCHNER POSTS THE LOW ROUND OF THE NIGHT IN THE 'B' FLIGHT WITH A NICE (44). HONORABLE MENTION TO DOMINIC DERITA (SUBBING FOR DINO) WITH A (45). JOHN WEGRZYN & DENNY OBENAUER (48's) GOOD SHOOTING GUYS!!

B5: Ron Corfield (68) / Erv Rock

Ron started pretty good, posting a bogey on the #1 handicap holes to get off to a decent start. The next two holes did major damage with an extra 10 strokes. After posting a double on 4, the bottom dropped out again with an additional 10 strokes. Ron finished with a bogey on 7 and then got bit for 9 more strokes over par on the final two holes. Good try Ron. Erv opened with triples on the first three holes.

After a double, Erv posted a triple on #5 and quad on tough number 6. Erv finished a bit better with bogeys on 7 & 8 and a double on 9. Good finish Erv.

B6: Bill Folson (sub Matt Zuber - 56) / Dino DeTomaso (sub

Dom DeRita - 45): Matt got off to a poor start posting triples on the first two holes. Matt posted a bogey on #4, but had double troubles on 3, 5 & 6. One more bogey and then trouble again cropped up, with back to back triples to end the round. Good effort Matt. Dom played bogey golf for the first four holes then nailed a par on the second par 5. Dom posted two more pars, one on 7 & the other on 8. He finished with a double on #9. Dom made (3) pars in a round of (45). Good round Dom.

B7: Dave Maxon (53) / John

Wegrzyn (48): Dave found double trouble on his first two holes, and stopped the bleeding with a bogey on #3. Dave found a bogey on #5 but the sixth hole took a chunk out of his round with a triple. A bogey on 7 was followed up with a double on 8 and triple on the 9th. Dave finished with a (53). Good try Dave. John started with a double, but notched a nice par on #2. He made bogey on 3 and notched his second par on #4. John posted a bogey on #6, but like many others, got clipped by a double on 8 and triple on 9. Nice (48) John.

B8: Paul McWhinnie (61) / Walter Wnuk (69): This is the first year in a league for both Paul and Walter, as both had a tough time for the first week of competition. Paul started off with a triple on the #1 handicap hole on the front. A couple of doubles were followed by a triple on the first par three. He maintained doubles until his last two hole that took the most toll on his round with 9 extra strokes. Good try Paul. Walter had all kinds of trouble from the opening tee. He started with a quad and nothing seem to come together. He made back to back triples before the par three, hole #4, did extensive damage to his round. He did manage a very nice par on #7, but like so many others, got stung by the final two holes with 9 extra shots. Walter finished with (1) par Good effort Walter.

B9: Greg Haigh (57) / Mike Kove (50): Greg hasn't played in the league for a few years and must still have a little rust left in them as he struggled in his first week of competition. He opened with back to back triples and took a double on #3. The bottom dropped out on #4 as he added 5 extra strokes over par. He nailed a par on #5, the second par 5 and another par on #7. He stuck the green close enough to take closest to the pin for the 'B' flight. He finished with a triple on #8 and double on #9. Greg notched (2) pars. Nice effort Greg. Mike Kove also returns after a few years off. He was steady then and comes back steady again. Mike had a few holes that cropped up and bit him with doubles. 4 to be exact. He made doubles on #3, then 5, 6 & 7. The first hole clipped him for his only triple of the round. Again, he played steady and I expect him to get back into some lower rounds in the 40's. Mike finished with a (50).

'A' FLIGHT ROUNDS FOR WEEK 2

A1: Brian DeRita (40) / Brent Cymbalski (44):

Brian has not lost much since last year as he comes in with a very nice (40). After an opening double, Brian nailed the par on the first par 5. Hole #3 yielded a bogey and then Brian got into gear. Pars followed on the next three holes, culminating with a Birdie on #7. He finished with a bogeys on 8 and 9. Brian notched (4) pars and (1) birdie. Very nice shooting Brian. Brent struggled with a double to start the round and bogeyed the par 5-2nd hole. Brent nailed back to back pars on 3 & 4 and looked like he got back into stroke, before going back into bogey mode. Two more showed up on the card before stopping them with a par on #7. Brent finished with a bogey on 8 and double on 9. Brent made (3) pars. Nice round Brent.

A2: Andre Viger (38) / Dennis McQuade (50):

Andre started with a bogey on #1, but quickly got his round back to even as he nailed a birdie on #2. Dropped another stroke on #3 and redeemed himself again with a birdie on #4. He made three more pars out of the last 5 holes to shoot a great round. Andre nailed (3) pars and (2) birdies in a round of (38). Partner Dennis had his fair share of problems on his first two holes, posting a double on 1 and triple on

#2. After a bogey on 3, Dennis got stung by a triple on the first par three. Dennis made bogeys on 5, 7 & 9 sticking in a double on #6. Dennis nailed a par on #8. Dennis finished with (1) par in his round of (50). Good effort Dennis.

A3: Ken Huyghe (46) / Dale Lohr (49): Kenny struggled right from the opening tee, finding a quad on #1. He added a double on #3 and bogeys on 2 & 4. He made his first par on #5. He made bogeys on 6 and 8 with pars on 7 & 9. Ken finished with (3) pars in his round. Good try Ken. Dale like many others found the opening hole cost him a double. He made a nice par on #2 and then got clipped by another double, this one on #3. He bogeyed his way through the next two holes before getting stung by a triple on #6. He finished with a bogeys on 7 & 9 with a double in between. Dale finished with (1) par. Good effort Dale.

A4: Nate Hood (sub Brian Cooper) 49 / Trevor Val-lus (50):

Nate was out of town for the opening round of competition and had his friend Brian Cooper subbed in his place. Brian started with back to back bogeys before hole #3 & #4 cost him a doubles. Hole #5 bit into his round with a triple and number 6 got him for another double. Brian notched a par on the 2nd par three and finished like he started with bogeys. Brian made (1) par in his round of (49). Good try Brian. Trevor has a some dust left over on his clubs as he comes into the clubhouse with a (50). Trevor started with a double and nailed his only par on the long par 5, hole #2. Trevor added a triple on the card on #3 and doubled #4. After a bogey on the 2nd par 5, Trevor made back to back doubles. He did finish a bit better, posting back to back bogeys on the final two holes. Trevor posted (1) par. Good try Trevor.

A5: Stan Dreslinski (45) / Ray Ressler (47): After a double on #1, Stan posted pars on 2 and 4 with a bogey on #3. He added bogey on 5 & 6 and nailed another par on the par three 7th. Stan's final two holes cost him back to back doubles. Stan notched (3) pars in a round of (45). Ray had all sorts of problems in his round. He making fairways ok, but could not find the bottom of the cup on several putts. Holes #1, #2 and

#3 all showed doubles costing Ray 6 extra shots. He nailed a par on #4 and then bogey the second par 5. One more double, this one on #6, and Ray finished with a par on 7 followed by back to back bogeys on 8 & 9. Ray finished with (2) pars in his round of (47). Good effort Ray.

A6: Bill Gaunt (40) / Steve Ciaramitaro (sub Dave Cohoon.. 42):

Bill didn't seem to lose much over the winter and came out firing bullets to the greens. Bill started with a bogey on #1 and then got back to even par as he nailed a birdie on #2. Bill stayed even as he notched pars on the next 5 holes. His last two holes did the damage costing him 4 extra shots with back to back doubles. Bill finished with a (40) posting 5 pars and a birdie. Good round Bill. Steve was unable to play and Bill's friend filled in as a sub for him. Dave Cohoon shot a very nice (42). He started out slow, posting doubles on 1 & 3 and a bogey on 2. After one more bogey on #4, Dave got hot. He nailed pars on the final five holes to post a nice round. Dave finished with (5) pars. Nice round Dave.

A7: Gary Kwapiik (39) / Tom Van (40): Gary hasn't lost too much over the winter layoff as he comes in with the second best round of the night with a (39).

ANDRE LEADS THE 'A' FLIGHT INTO THE WATERING HOLE WITH A VERY NICE 2 OVER ROUND OF (38) ~ GARY KWAPIK POSTS A (39) AND TOM VAN AND BRIAN DERITA COME IN WITH (40'S) ~ NICE ROUNDS GUYS

Gary started with a bogey on #1 and nailed pars on the next three holes to get back on track. He bogeyed his next two holes and then lit it up with pars on the final three holes to salvage a very nice round. Gary finished with (6) pars. Nice shooting Gary.

Tom is related to Ken Kelchner who plays in the 'B' flight and got off to a very good start. Tom had a very nice four over round of (40) to get started on the right path. Tom bogeyed #1 and then got bit by a double on #2. Tom posted bogeys on 3 and 6 and everything else was a par, except #5, where he nailed a very nice birdie. Tom finished with (4) pars and (1) birdie. Good shooting Tom.

A8: Wayne Davidson (50) / Rusty Ellison (46):

The par 4, number one handicap produced a triple on Wayne's card and he struggled most of the round. After a nice par on #2. Wayne put doubles on the card on his next two holes. A bogey on #5 was followed up with another double. Wayne notched his second par on #7 and a bogey followed on #8. Wayne's last hole looked like the first hole with a final triple. Wayne notched (2) pars in his round of (50). The first two holes on Rusty's card were doubles as he struggled a bit. He made bogeys on 3 & 4 and nailed a nice par on #5. Hole number 6 was cruel to him as well as many others, as he posted a triple. He did finish on a better note, posting pars on 7 and 9 and a bogey on #8. Rusty finished with a (46), making (3) pars in his round. Good start Rusty.

A9: Warren Hood (49) / Jim Turner (sub Jim Koss-60): Warren had opening back to back doubles on the 1st and 2nd holes. He got bit by another double on the par 3-4th. He bogeyed 3 & 5, and then got another double on dreaded hole #6. He made a final double on #7 and finished with back to back bogeys for a round of (49). Good try Warren. Jim was unable to attend the league night and Jim Koss subbed for him. Jim came in with a (60) As several holes took a toll on his round. After an opening double, Jim's round took a nose dive. A quad on 2 was followed by a triple on 3. Jim was unable to get his round under control. He made a quad on 4 followed by a triple on the 2nd par 5. He made a bogey on 7 and finished with a final triple on 8 and double on 9. A valiant effort Jim.

A10: Billy Alessandrini (55) / Scott Brogdon (53): Billy got off to a poor start and had trouble getting in a better round. The first three holes cost him 8 extra strokes. He made a bogey on 4 and 6 but again found doubles on Holes 5 & 7. The final two holes did the rest of the damage with a double on 8 and triple on 9. Billy finished with a (55). Good try Billy.

Scott like had troubles on this opening two holes. After an opening triple, the first par 5 cost him 5 extra shots that made it hard to come back from. He nailed a par on #4 with a bogey on each side of the hole. He had more troubles on 6, posting a double but got bit by a triple on the par 3 seventh. He finished a bit better with back to back bogeys for a round of (53). Scott notched (1) par. Good try Scott.

A11: Pat Nellis (sub Freddie Steerzer-52) / Cory Routheaux (55): With Pat Nellis out for a while, diagnosed with a fracture in T3 in his back, Freddie will take over till Pat can return. Freddie had opening trouble with a triple on hole #1. He posted a par on #2 and #4, but made a double on 3 and then trouble reared its head on holes 5 & 6. There, he made back to back quads. He made his third par on 7 and finished with a double on 8 and bogey on 9. Freddie finished with a (52) making (3) pars. Good effort Freddie. Cory got off to a very bad start, posting back to back doubles on 1 & 2. He found a triple on 3 with a bogey on 4 that looked like he may make a charge to get his round back on track. He made his 2nd triple on the par 5 fifth. After doubling the tough 6th hole, Cory notched a par on #7. The final two holes did the balance of the damage with a double on 8 and quad on 9. Cory finished his round with a (55) posting (1) par. A valiant try Cory.

A12: Bill Marsack (51) / Kirk Cejmer (44): Bill played the early round and seemed to have a bit of trouble that seemed to transfer into his league competition round as well. Bill made a triple on #1 and doubled the first par 5. After back to back bogeys, Bill again got stung by a double on 5 and triple on 6. Bill made a par on 7 and finished with a final double on 8 and bogey on 9. Bill finished with a (51) posting (1) par. Good try Bill. Kirk started on the slow side, posting doubles on 1 & 3 with a bogey on the first par 5. He then strung together a barrage of pars beginning on 4 and not stopping until he made a bogey on 8. Kirk finished with a double on 9 and a final round of 44. Kirk posted (4) pars in his round. Nice shooting Kirk.

We will continue to try and shotgun groups out on as many holes that are available. If you know you are not going to be there by 5:30, please let one of the officers in the league know so they can send out groups missing players at a reasonable time. The late comer will still have the opportunity to complete his round as time permits.
