The 4th hole cost Steve yet another double. The real problem showed up on #5 as Steve added 4 strokes over the hole par. The final four holes cost him triples on 6 & 8 and doubles on 7 & 9. A valiant effort Steve.

A7: Gary Kwapik (43) / Tom Van (44): It must have been the night, as Gary followed last weeks 38 with a (43) in week 6. The rest of the round showed bogeys on the card. A valiant effort Bill. Kirk has stayed in the mid forties for the last several weeks, coming in with a (45) in last week round. Kirk nailed a par on the tough #1 handicap hole but ran into trouble on the first par 5 adding two extra shots over par. the other 6 holes to finish with a (44). Good try Ken. Ken notched (2) pars. Dale brought his round down 3 strokes from last week, coming into the clubhouse with a (46). Dale finished with (2) pars. Nice round Dale.

disappointing round. Trevor was one of 5 players to drain a par on the #1 handicap hole on the front, hole #1. Trouble popped up on #2 and #3 and #4 as he made back to back to back doubles. Steve also found trouble in his round, going up 3 strokes from last week as he comes into the clubhouse with a (61). A double on 1 and bogey on 2 didn't hurt his round as much as #3. That hole alone cost him 4 extra strokes. A double on 4 was followed with a triple on the 2nd par 5. Hole number six must have eaten up some of his balls as he posted 6 more shots over the hole par. He Did seem to settle down posting back to back bogeys on 7 & 8. He finished with a triple on 9. A valiant try Ron. Erv also had some large numbers posted on his card. A double on 1 was followed by a quad on #2. The bogey on 3 looked like he might recover some, but that was short lived as he got bit by back to back triples. Hole number 6 was a double and 7 was a bogey. He finished with a quad on 8 and bogey on 9. Good try Erv.
