He birdie on #15 and trouble on the final cost him a chance on two of his nailed a ran into two holes that to post a round in the 30's. He made back to back doubles to finish on a sour note. Steve notched (3) pars and (1) birdie. Nice round. Kurt posted his 2nd round in a row in the upper forties. He had problems in three of the first four holes that did most of the damage to his round. Two doubles and a triple showed up on the card. After a couple of bogeys, Kurt put a par on the card. He matched his partners last two holes with back to back doubles. Kurt finished with (1) par in his round of (49). Good try Kurt.

B3: Ernie Danos (abs) / Steve Fleck (abs):

Both players were absent from league play last week. I don't know why, but hope to see them this week.

B4: Larry Ball (sub-Matt Zuber) (47) / Norm Giraud (49):

Matt Zuber was able to sub for Larry and comes in with a (47). Matt played bogey golf for the first three holes before the 13th cut into his round with a big number. Matt posted a quad on the hole. He then settled down with back to back pars. He made bogey on 16 and then took a triple on 17. He finished with a bogey on 18. Matt notched (2) pars. Good effort Matt. Norm knocked off 4 strokes and finally gets back into the 40's with a (49) last week.

Hole #10 got him with a triple and then he proceeded to make doubles on 11 & 13. He took the bogey train for three holes before 17 clipped him for a double. He finished with a bogey on 18. Good effort Norm.

B5: Ron Corfield (abs) / Erv Rock (50):

Ron had a procedure done and was not able to play in last weeks league match. Keep him in your prayers for quick healing. Meanwhile, Erv continues to make some great improvements in his game. He comes in with his second low round in a row, posting a very nice (50). Holes 10 and 11 clipped his round for doubles, then he bogeyed the par three 12th. He made another double on 13 and then leveled out with bogeys on the next three holes. The final two holes did the balance of damage with a double and a triple on #18. Still a very good round Erv. Grrreeat improvements in your game. Keep up the good shooting.

B6: Bill Folson (abs) / Dino DeTomaso (abs):

Bill told me last week that he was having some difficulty with his shoulder. He is having an evaluation on Tuesday the 31st to see if surgery is necessary. He will keep us informed. Dino was also absent from league play last week.

B7: John Wegrzyn (46) / Dave Maxon (48):

Both players continue to hang around the mid to upper 40's and are still trying to catch our first place leaders. They took good points last week but lose a little ground with 1st place taking two more points than them. John pretty much played on the bogey train most of his round. He posted 7 out of nine bogeys. The 11th hole got him for a double and the 16th did the same. All in round. Good he comes in likewise had Dave comes Dave had three holes that gave him some trouble. Hole #10, #12 and #18 cost him doubles. The 13th did the most damage with a triple. Dave nailed his only par on #15. Good shooting Dave.

B8: Walter Wnuk (abs) / Paul McWhinnie (abs):

This was the third team to miss the league night. I do know that Paul has taken a job that work he may of the requires him to afternoons, so miss the rest year.

B1: Ken Kelchner (42) / Denny Obenauer (43):

Ken reduced his round by 4 strokes from last week. He comes in with a nice (42) even despite have some troubles on 10 & 11. Those holes cost him doubles. He settled down quite a bit after that, posting bogey son 12 & 13 and then jumping on the par express. He stayed on for three holes before stopping off for a bogey on 17. He finished positive as he nailed a par to close out his round.

Ken notched (3) pars. Good shoot- ing Ken. For the straight second week, Denny in with a nice comes in with (43). Denny's round showed only one double on the card, which showed up on hole 11. He then added two pars in his round, which came back to back. He posted one on 15 and followed that with one on 16. Denny played bogey golf on the rest of the holes. Denny notched (2) pars. Very nice shooting Denny.

GOLF TIPS ON PUTTING.

GIVE YOURSELF AN EYE EXAM:

When talking green-reading, we tend to focus more on breaks rather than on distance, because golfers think distance is easier to discern than tilt. As an optometrist and sports-vision specialist, I know that's not the case. Many players I work with are "depth-deficient," perceiving the location of the hole as closer than it is. In some cases, their perceptual error is 25 percent—that means that a 25-footer looks like it only needs to travel 20 feet.

Those five feet of mis-judgment cost you. One of the first things I do with a new client is to make sure they don't suffer this malady, which is as common as freckles—and just as threatening if left untreated. Give yourself an "eye exam," using the depth-perception test.

GOLF TIPS CONTINUED: Judge distance from the side of the putt, not from behind the ball. This gives you much better appreciation of the overall putt length. Remember how far the putt looks from this perspective, then go back to the ball to complete your read. . 2. "Walk" off the distance with your stroke. From the side of the putt, point your putter at the ball, then pass it over an imaginary line running from the ball to the cup at the same speed you want the putt to roll (above). Moving your putter head from the ball to the hole at the proper speed when you're calculating distance helps your brain move your arms and putter with the correct amount of energy when you putt the ball for real. Yes, you can do this by simply scanning your eyes over the line, but studies prove that using your eyes and hands in tandem enhances brain performance much more than using only your eyes.

Follow these instructions and you won't be doing this all the time.

TEAM A2 (ANDRE VIGER & DENNIS MCQUADE) GAIN A POINT AFTER LAST WEEKS BEST BALL SCRAMBLE ~~ THERE ARE FOUR TEAMS ALL WITHIN STRIKING DISTANCE WITH 4TH PLACE ONLY TRAILING BY 16 POINTS!!!

A2: Andre Viger & Dennis McQuade:

Best Ball Score : (36):

Andre and Dennis fared well, splitting points with their opponents as they gave up 6 handicap strokes in the round. They accounted for bogeys on two holes only, #10 and #18. They nailed a birdie on hole #11 and posted pars on the rest of the card. They finished with (6) pars to go with the (1) birdie. Nice round guys.

A3: Ken Huyghe & Dale Lohr:

Best Ball Score: (39) :

Ken & Dale are 11 points out of first and come in with a very nice round, but didn't take enough points to catch up much against the first place team. They only take 7 points and drop two more points behind. They nailed pars on 10 thru 13 and got bit from a bogey on 14. They added two more pars, these on 15 & 16. They finished with a bogey on 17 and double bogey on the final hole, the par 5 - 18th. Ken & Dale finished with (6) pars. Nice round guys.

A4: Nate Hood & Trevor Vallus:

Best Ball Score: (42) :

The guys split their card up posting pars and bogeys on most of the holes. They posted pars on 10, 14 & 15. Their only problem hole was #18, where they got bit by a double. They made (3) pars in their round. They split points with the leaders.

A5: Stan Dreslinski (sub Ben Newman) & Ray Ressler (Tom Marshall):

Best Ball Score: (40): With Stan injured and Ray at the hospital with his wife, subs filled in for both. Ben Newman and Tom Marshall. Thanks guys. The subs posted a nice round of 40, taking 12 points against their opponents. The boys posted 5 pars on 5 holes. They took a double on 15 and bogeys on the other three holes. Good shooting guys.

A6: Bill Gaunt & Steve Ciaramitaro:

Best Ball Score: (43):

The team had bogey problems most of their round. The did get stuck with a double that cropped up on #15. They posted (2) pars continued below left and the balance of the card was filled in with bogeys. Good effort guys.

A7: Gary Kwapik & Tom Van:

Best Ball Score: (37) :

Gary and Tom made up some ground taking 14 points against their opponents in last weeks best ball scramble. They accounted for pars on six of the nine holes they played. They nailed a birdie on 15 and a bogey on 14. The 12th hole bit into their round with a double. They played well and have move into a tie for 4th place, 16 points out of first. Good shooting boys.

A8: Wayne Davidson & Rusty Ellison:

Best Ball Score: (39):

With this format, it helped to have one or both players find pars when the other didn't.

Wayne and Rusty lose ground, but only 1 point. They now trail by 8 and lead over 3rd by 3 points. The boys posted pars on 5 holes. They got bit by a double on 15 and posted bogeys on the other three holes, still shooting a nice round. Good shot making gentlemen.

A9: Warren Hood & Jim Turner:

Best Ball Score: (45):

The boys struggled in this best ball scramble, as they come in a little higher than I expected. Their card showed two problem holes, #11 & #17 as both produced doubles on the card. They notched a single par, which came on the par 5 - 18th. The balance of the card was filled in with bogeys. A valiant effort to the Pastors.

A10: Billy Alessandrini & Scott Brogdon:

Best Ball Score: (41):

Billy and Scott had a one tough hole that bit into them costing them a double. That was the #10 hole. They were able to notch pars on (4) holes, consisting of 12, 14, 16 & 18. Wow, all on even numbered holes. They posted bogeys on the other four. They finished their round with a (41). Good shooting by both.

B11: Pat Nellis (sub Freddie Steerzer) & Cory Routheaux:
Best Ball Score: (37):

They finished at 2 over as they come in with a (37). The nailed pars on 5 holes. They nailed a birdie on #15 and 3 bogeys. They never put a double on the card. 5 pars and 4 bogeys. Nice round you two.

A12: Bill Marsack & Kirk Cejmer:
Best Ball Score: (38):

Bill and Kirk posted a very nice 3 over par round between them in the best ball scramble. They put pars on the card on 10, 11 & 12 before getting clipped by back to back bogeys. They reduced one of the extra shots with a birdie on #15. One more par, this on 16 and then they finished with back to back bogeys. They played steady most of the round and took a few points in the process. Nice shooting Bill and Kirk.

A1: Brian DeRita (abs) & Brent Cymbalski (42):

Brian got called out of town for work and Brent was unsuccessful in securing a sub for Brian. Brent finished his round at

(42) without any help. Brent took back to back bogeys on 10 & 11 and then made back to back pars to try to get back into the groove. Hole 14 took its toll on his round as he put a double on the card. He nailed a birdie on 15 and got bit by his second double, this came on the par three 16th. He finished 17 and 18 with back to back bogeys. Brent notched (2) pars and a birdie in his round.
