SHIFTING SANDS AGAIN AS TEAM #3 (WALTER & RAY) CLIMB BACK INTO FIRST PLACE~~TEAM #11(BRIAN & BRENT) & TEAM #10(MIKE & DAVE) VAULT SEVERAL TEAMS TO MOVE INTO A TIE FOR 5TH!!

Team #3: Walter Wnuk-49 / Ray Ressler-

42: Two holes made the difference in Walter shooting a lower forties round, as he comes in with a (49). Hole #6 bit into his round with a quad. He added a triple on hole

#8 and doubled number 9. Walter nailed a birdie on hole #5 and posted pars on 2 & 7. Nice shooting WW. Ray is hanging in fairly consistent with his rounds, posting a nice (42) in week 5.

Ray got bit by a double on the par three 4th. He put together pars on 7, 8 & 9 and added one more on hole #5. The rest of the card was filled in with bogeys. Walter and Ray jump back into the top spot in week 5. Nice shooting Ray.

Team #4: Andre Viger-42 / Rusty Ellison-

48: After the first weeks 36, Andre has leveled off a bit, posting his second (42) in a row. Andre played steady nailing pars on 4, 6 & 7. Andre made bogeys on the other 6 holes to round out a nice card. Good job Andre. Rusty managed to shave a couple of strokes of last weeks round coming into the watering hole with a (48). Rusty nailed (3) pars in a disappointing round. He in a dis-notched them on 3, 4 and 7. Four holes clipped his round for an extra 8 shots, but the 2nd hole, the par 5 bit him for a triple. All in all if wasn't a total disaster as he got back into the 40's. Good try Rusty.

Team #5: Dennis McQuade-49 / Sub

Gary Kwapik-40: Dennis found double trouble on three holes, costing him an extra six strokes. Holes 1 and 2 began his downfall. He posted a par on 7 before succumbing to another double on 8. The 6th hole did the rest of the damage as it cost him dearly with a triple elevating his score. Dennis limped in with a (49) in his round. A valiant effort Denny. Eric was unavailable, and Gary Kwapik subbed for him and comes in tied for second best round of the night, tuning in a 4 over par (40). Gary nailed (3) pars, coming on 1, 7 & 9. Gary got bit by an a triple on a nemesis hole #6. In all fairness, though, he reduced two strokes off that with birdies on holes #2 & #5. That picked him up a bit. Good shooting Gary.

Team #6: Ken Huyghe-43 /

Bill Gaunt-50: Three pars so far seem to be the consensus for most of the players in week 5. Ken nailed pars on 2, 7 & 8. He got doubled up on #6 and filled in the rest of his card with bogeys. Ken shoots a (43). Decent round, but not your best. Good try Ken.

Bill Gaunt has run into some troubles for the second week in a row Bill comes into the club-house with a round of (50). Bill nailed his only par on hole #9. His worse hole was #2 where he got stung by a triple. Bill added three doubles to go on the card as well, taking his round out of the forties. Good effort Bill.

Team #7: Bill Marsack-44 / Kirk Cejmer-46:

Bill and Kirk said arrivederci to first place, but well within striking distance only 4 points back. Bill comes in with a (44), still posting some nice rounds. Bill notched (2) pars in his round. One came on hole #2 and the other on hole #6. At least someone show 6 what for. Other than the double on #5, Bill finished off his card with bogeys the rest of his round.

Good shooting Bill. Kirk went up a stroke from last week coming in with a (46). Kirk notched his only par on hole #9. He got bit by two doubles, holes number 2 and 7. The balance of his round were bogeys. Good effort Kirk.

Team #8: Ernie Danos-49 / Steve Fleck-61:

Ernie turns in consecutive rounds of (49) for the second week in a row.

Four doubles did the extent of the damage to his round. His only par came on hole #3. Bogeys did the balance of the damage. A valiant try Ernie. So, will the real Steve Fleck please stand up, cause I didn't see him playing last week. Steve shot up 15 strokes from his previous weeks round coming into the watering hole with a (61). His round was riddled with 3 quads, posted on 3, 5 & 7. He added two triples and the rest of the holes were filled in with bogeys. Steve failed to notch any pars in his round. I expect the real Steve will be back this coming week. Good try Steve.

Team #9: Steve Miramont-46 / Rick Berschbach-48:

Steve and Rick dropped a few spots in the standings after last week and are now tied for 7th. Steve dropped a few strokes off last weeks round coming in with a (46).

Three doubles put the dent in his round that he didn't need. Holes 1, 3 and 6, two out of three are the hardest handicapped holes on the front nine. Steve nailed pars on the second par 5, hole #5 and the 2nd par three, hole #7. Still an ok round. Good effort Steve. Rick had a few more troubles in his round than Steve as he comes in 6 shots higher than last week, posting a (48). Rick got burned by four doubles, posting them on holes 1, 2, 4 & 6. Rick nailed his only par on #3. He kept it under 50, so that is a plus in itself. A valiant effort Rick.

#10: Mike Alessi-57 / Dave Benson-44:

Mike had some difficulties in his round in week 5, coming in with a disappointing (57). The triples got the best of his next best round with a (40). Brent took an uncharacteristic double on the par 5 2nd hole. Brent added a couple of bogeys on 1 and 3. Then he put on his par clinic starting on #4 and finishing his 6th pars in a row on #9. Great finish and round Brent.

Team #12: Larry Ball-47 / Norm Giraud-50:

Larry posted a much better round in week 5, coming in three shots lower than last week, shooting a (47). Larry nailed pars on 7 & 9. A few holes beat up his round. He took a triple on #1 and added two doubles that took his to the upper forties. All in all a very nice round Larry. Norm went the opposite way, going up three strokes from his previous week. Norms round was pulverized by 4 doubles and a triple. The triple showed up on the card on hole number 6. The doubles on 1, 2

5 and 8. Norm managed (1) par coming on the par three 4th. Good try Norm.

Team #1: Wayne Davidson-42 / Warren Hood-44:

Wayne showed up to play in week 5, posting a very nice round of (42), knocking off 8 strokes from last week. Wayne had one tough hole, this coming on the first par 5, hole number two that clipped him for a double. Wayne strung together pars starting on hole #6 and finishing straight on #9. Very nice shooting Wayne. Pastor Hood is still posting some low forties rounds, coming in with a (44). Warren got stung by three doubles. Holes #2, 8 & 9. He nailed a birdie on #5 to go with (2) pars. Bogeys filled in the balance. Nice round Warren.

round, as he turned in 4. These came on holes #2, 4, 5 & 6. Hole #3 cost him a lone quad. Mike nailed a lone par on hole #9. A valiant effort Mike, and I look for a nice rebound in week 6. Dave Benson turned in a very nice round, coming in with a (44). Dave put pars on the card on holes number 3 and tough hole #6. Dave turned in a lone double, this coming on hole #9. The rest of the card was filled in with bogeys. Nice round Dave.

Team #11: Brian DeRita-37 / Brent Cymbalski-40:

Brian leads the pack in with the best round of the night, a 1 over par (37). The birdie on hole #8 offset one of the two bogeys he put on his card. He posted them on 2 and 4. This gave him 6, no hum pars. Nice round Brian. Brent was 3 shots back from his partner, posting the continued below left:

Team #2: Billy Alessandrini-41 / Scott Brogdon-44:

Billy turned it around in week 5, posting the 3rd best round of the night with a (41), dropping off 5 strokes from last week. Billy nailed five pars in a nice round. He nailed one on #2, #4 and finished the final three holes, #7, #8 & #9 with pars. He made his only double on the #1 handicap hole #1. Nice round Billy. Scott too had something to smile about last week as he dropped off 9 strokes from last weeks round. He nailed a birdie on hole #3 to go with 3 pars. He did get bit by 4 doubles that cost him a much lower round. He played much better this week and this will continue and he will break into the 30's. Nice shooting 'Beam me Up' Scotty.

TIPS TO HELP WITH YOUR GAME:

Tip #1:

The Secret Of The Iron Game, Your Knees:

A lot of us might emphasize our arms, back, and shoulder for the long game. It's not a wrong approach, however, there are differences between teed-up ball for driver shots and when the ball is on the ground for your irons. Rory McIlroy, one of the stars of this generation, gave us a very solid tip to address the iron shots. He suggested moving your weight down and forward as you make your swing, allowing the bottom of your swing to be angled in front of the ball. To move that weight, drive your left knee toward the ball, and straighten it as you make your full swing. On the other hand, Butch Harmon also suggested to push your right knee to your left knee as you swing, to make a proper shift of your weight forward. Butch said that one common mistake of iron shots is that we might try to lift or chip the ball, instead of trying to hit it down and through. By pushing your right knee toward the left knee, and strike the ball with the back of your left hand facing the ball, you can eliminate the issue of trying to chip the ball. One easy way to align your iron shot is to put your chest directly on top of the ball at impact. Combine all those, and see how your left knee game will affect your irons game. If Rory McIlroy and Butch Harmon agree, it's hard to make a pass for this tip.
