Mike was posting some decent rounds in the 50's until this week, when he crossed the line into the 60's. continued below left

Mike's card with (3)quads was riddled and (4) triples that made it impossible to recover his round and get back into the 50's Mike finished with a (63). A valiant effort Mike. This week is redemption time to put a good card back together.

Team #11: Brent Cymbalski (38) / Brian DeRita (39): The boys of summer have climbed half way up the leader board by continually posting some very nice rounds. Brent tied with another player to share low round honors in week 6, posting a 3 over 6 of Brent's 9 holes picture perfect with 5 holes and a nice birdie on #13. He took a lone double on 17, but with the birdie, he ends up with three bogeys overall in the round. Nice round Brent. Partner Brian continues to shoot very well. With four rounds in the 30's, the 44 in week 30's, the 44 in week four stands out like a sore thumb. Brian nailed pars from 11 to 14 before dropping shots with bogeys on his next three holes. He nailed pars on 12 and 15 to help the  cause some, but added a couple of doubles that dropped his score down even more. The rest of his card was filled in with bogeys. Still a decent round Scott. Good try Scott. Billy has been playing some solid golf, and comes into the 19th hole tying for the best round of the week. Billy shot a 3 over (38) this week, following a nice round last week as well. Billy nailed 7 pars in the round. Hole number 15 cost him a double three over round. Solid shooting and great round Billy, earning you the silver ball round.

and #17 a bogey for his award for an excellent

Team #3: Walter Wnuk (46) / Ray Ressler (40): Walter dropped off three strokes from last weeks round as he comes into the watering hole with a (46). Three holes hurt his round the most, costing him a  chance to post an even lower number in the forties. Holes number 17 and 18 clipped his wings for back to back triples. I think he just may skip these holes next  time we play the back nine as they always seem to give him the most trouble. He managed pars on 10, 11 and 15, filling in the rest of the holes with bogeys. Still a nice round Walter. Keep up the good shooting. Partner Ray dropped off two strokes from last weeks round as he comes in with a 5 over par (40).
