TWO PLAYERS FINISH WITH 4 OVER ROUNDS OF [39]!! MIKE LITTLETON & SUB BRIAN DERITA~NICE ROUNDS!!

Team #3: Wayne Davidson (42) / Warren Hood (41): We welcome back two struck by Covid, but have recovered well and played well for being off a couple started on a bogey trail from the opening hole, and remaining on it until the he stopped them with a par. He added one more par, this coming on the 17th two holes were bogeys. Wayne finished with a (42). Nice round Wayne. Partner Warren also played well and bested his partner by a stroke, finishing the round with a (41). Warren started slow, posting doubles on #10 and #12, sticking in a par on #11. He posted back to back bogeys before turning his round around with some very nice shot making to salvage his round. He finished his last four holes with pars to finish on a high note and a very nice round. Good job Warren.

players that got of weeks. Wayne 15th hole, where and the remaining Team #4: Brent Cymbalski (41) / Sub Brian DeRita (39): Brent continues to search for his game, still not getting his score down where he was last year. He does come in with a nice (41) in week 5, at least maintaining his lower 40's scores. Brent opened with back to back pars before running into a bogey on the par three 12th. He again strung together another two pars before getting stopped again by another bogey on #14. He struggled the final three holes, posting two bogeys and a double on 17. Still another nice round Brent. Andre has been hospitalized since May 26. He is now scheduled for surgery on the 7th of June to remove the blockage. With this surgery, Andre will be out for 6-8 weeks. Brian DeRita was able to sub for Andre in week 5 and kept pace with Andre's scores the first three weeks by posting a (39) himself. Brian didn't fair well on #10 as he got bit by an opening double. He made a nice recovery, nailing pars on his next three holes, sticking his approach shots on greens to give him chances for birdies as well. After a bogey on 14, Brian got his birdie on #15 to help his round. He finished out his round with back to back bogeys on 16 and 18. Very nice round Brian.

well on #10 as he got bit by an opening three holes, sticking his approach shots on on 14, Brian got his birdie on #15 to help his before a final par on 18. Very nice round

Team #5: Rick Berschbach (45) / Chris Dickerson (44): Rick faltered a bit having to play the course and coming in with a (45), a touch above what he has been shooting the first several weeks. Rick's round got whipped by a couple of doubles, one coming on #10 and the other on #18. Rick could only post one par in his round, that coming on hole #13. The rest of his card was filled in with bogeys. Still a decent round Rick. Chris finally brough down his round, dropping 6 shots off last weeks round as he finished with a (44). Chris nailed pars on 12 and tough #17 to keep his round down in the lower 40's. Chris also doubled #10 and #18. He posted bogeys on his remaining holes to salvage a nice round. Very nice shooting Chris.

Team #6: Larry Ball (47) / Norm Giraud (53): Larry seemed to come out of a slump of above 50 rounds as he coasts into the 19th with a (47). His first round back in the forties since week 1. Hole #10 was very unkind to him as he put a triple on the card right out of the gate. Hole #11 clipped him for a double before he posted a par on #12. He nailed another par on 14 before going three deep with two extra two strokes on his card with a double. All in all a very Partner Norm had his struggles this week, coming in two finished with a (53). Norm put three doubles (11, 12 & 13) on He seemed to recover a bit posting back to back bogeys. The final two holes did the final damage with back to back doubles. A valiant effort Norm.

gneys on 15, 16 and 17. The final hole put the nice comeback round, good shooting Larry. strokes higher than his last outing. Norm fin- the card trapped by triples on #10 and #14.

OUR HEARTS ARE WITH ANDRE AS HE HAS TO WITHDRAW FROM THE LEAGUE FOR THE 2ND YEAR IN A ROW WITH SOME HEALTH ISSUES. OUR THOUGHTS AND PRAYERS ARE WITH HIM AND HIS FAMILY!!

Team #7: Steve Mitchell (52) / Kyle Kapa (60): Steve has turned it around in the last few weeks, posting some very nice rounds. For the second week in a row, Steve comes in with a low 50's round as he turned in a (52). This was one better than the last weeks round.  Three holes cost him a much better round, one that might have put him in the 40's. Holes #10, #13 and #18 cost him the extra strokes as he posted quads on all three. He nailed two pars, one on # 15 and the other on tough #17. The rest of the card was filled in with bogeys. Great shooting Steve and it shows as your handicap has dropped 2 strokes. Kyle struggled in week 5, coming in 9 shots higher than his round in week 3, posting a couple of quads, one coming on #10 and the other on #18. Four of the other holes did the rest of the damage as he got stung by triples, adding the additional 12 strokes to devastate his card. It was a valiant effort Kyle.

Team #8: James Allen (44) / Adam Grewie (52): Both players made significant improvements from the previous week. James comes in with 5 shots less than last week posting a nice (44). He had problems on the first hole, getting clipped by a triple. He them nailed back to back pars to level out his round some. He would then jump on the bogey train, beginning  on #13 and jumping off at #16 and then post a double on #17. He recovered from the double with a par on the final hole. Nice shooting James. Adam probably was ready to quit his round after his first four holes. Back to back doubles on 10 & 11 was followed up with a quad on 12 and triple on 13. He made two more doubles before finishing with a par on 16 and back to back bogeys on 17 and 18. Good recovery in your round Adam.

Team #9: Kirk Cejmer (40) / Bill Marsack (44): Kirk comes back after a couple of weeks off, besting the previous week with three less strokes, posting a very nice 5 over round of (40). After an opening bogey, Kirk nailed a par on 11 and birdie on 12. He nailed one more par, this coming on tough hole number 14. He bogeyed his way through the rest of the round. Very nice round Kirk. After a couple of tough weeks that Bill was in the upper 40's, he came down 5 strokes from last week coming into the clubhouse with a (44). He and Kirk have clawed their way into third place in the standings. After a opening double, Bill nailed a double. Bill would post one more par, this one on the par three 16th. Bill finished up the next hole with a par. A couple of bogeys on his next two holes was followed up with back to back doubles. Still a nice round and effort Bill.

Team #10: Denny Obenauer (48) / Steve Ciaramitato (71): Denny knocked a couple of strokes off last weeks round coming into the old watering hole with a (48). Denny got bit by two triples and a double that kept him from a much better round. The triples came on #10 and #14. The double came on his final hole of the round. Denny nailed a par on 13 and posted bogeys on the remainder of his round. Good job Denny. Steve is still trying to get back into the swing of things and is going to get some help from Wayne to make some improvements in his game with some instructional help. Unfortunately, Steve's only bright spot was a par on #13. The balance of his card was filled with quads and two holes with 5 over par. A valiant effort Steve. Keep on trying and it will come around for you.

Men's Christian Golf League 2021

Team #11: Dave Benson (45) / Mike Alessi (44): After opening with a par back bogeys enroute to his (45). Hole thirteen clipped him for a double b- #14. Hole #15 wasn't very kind to him as it cost him a triple on the hole. A par on #17 and final bogey on #18. All in all a decent round Dave. Mike continues to play some very nice golf and posts his best round of the season, coming in with a (44). Mike nailed pars on #11 and #16. Two holes gave him double trouble. Hole #13 and #15 cost the doubles. The balance his card was filled in with bogeys to finish with a very nice round. Good shooting Mike. With both players shooting Mike and Dave.

Team #12: Mike Kove (49) / Rand Hewitt (58): Mike had his fair share of problems in week 5, limping into the 19th hole with a (49). He did drop off 10 strokes from last week, but I know he is a better golfer than the score reflects. The opening two holes put him in the hole from the start, posting a quad on #10 and triple gey on #12 and a par on #13. The #14th and #15th holes did the balance of the damage as he got stung by a triple and a double on those holes. He turned it around a bit, posting back to back pars on #16 and tough number #17. He finished with a bogey on #18. Good try Mike. Rand came in a stroke higher than last week, posing a (58) last week. He got bushwhacked right from the open- ing two holes (#10 & #11) as it cost him 8 additional strokes on his round. A double on #12 and another dreaded triple on #13. The final two holes finished him off with back to back triples. A valiant effort Rand.

Team #13: Mike Littleton (39) / Justin Littleton (44): Mike has been hovering near the under 40's round since week 1, and finally broke the barrier coming in with a (39) last week. Mike stuck in a par on #11 between bogeys on #10 & #12. He bogeyed his way to #15 where he nailed his second par. He bogey on #16 was followed up by a spectacular hole out on his second shot from the fairway on had small let down on #18 with a final bogey, but still shot an #17 to post and outstanding eagle. He excellent round. Great shooting Mike. Justin posts his second round of (44) for the second week in a row. Justin started slow, posting a bogey #12. His round showed some promise as he nailed back to back pars on #13 & #14 to get his round back on the road to recovery. He stalled a bit on his final four holes. Still, a nice round Justin. Keep up the good work.

Team #2: Ray Ressler (43) / Walter Wnuk (51): Ray played bogey golf for the first three holes, breaking the streak with a par on #13. Hole number 14 remains one of his nemesis holes as he got smacked with a triple. He nailed back to back pars on #15 & #16 to salvage his round a bit. The 17th is another of his not so favorite holes as that one cost him a double. He finished with a bogey on the par 5 - 18th for his round of (43), as he continues to stay in the lower 40's rounds. Good effort Ray. Walter continues to struggle to get back into the 40's since week 1 and comes into the clubhouse with a (51)The opening hole par looked like a good sign for a good round. Unfortunately, It was not to be as three holes did some major damage to his round. After the opening par, Walter got bit by back to back doubles. This was followed by back to back triples that pretty much crippled his round. He added one more par, this coming on hole #15. A final triple on #17 and double on #18 did the rest of the damage. Good try Walter.
