Team 04: Brent Cymbalski (43) / Andre Viger (HC42) : Andre was still in the hospital last week during week 6, but was expected to be discharged soon, based on his recovery from surgery on Monday the 7th. Meanwhile, Brent hasn't gotten back into his groove and limps into to the old watering hole with a (43). Brent took an opening triple on #1 and  never seemed to get back on track to break back into the 30's. He nailed pars on holes #2, 7 & 8,  posting bogeys on the remainder of his round. Good effort Brent. We could not fill in a spot for Andre, so the HC was used to match up against his opponent.

Team 05: Rick Berschback (45) / Chris Dickerson (46): Rick's round got beat up by a couple of doubles, posting them on 3 and 5.  He made two pars in his round. The first one on 2 and the last one on 4. His card was filled in the rest of the way with bogeys. Rick finished with a (45), matching his last weeks round. Good  shooting Rick. Chris continues to show  improvement in his game as he is hovering in the mid 40's now. He did go up a couple of strokes from the previous week, coming in with a (46). Three doubles did the damage to a lower finish. Hole #1, #3 and #5 led to his downfall for a much lower round. Chris nailed pars on #4 and #8 with bogeys on the balance of his card. Still, great improvement Chris.

Team #06: Larry Ball (49) / Norm Giraud (55): Larry and Norm had to play the course this week. Larry comes in with a (49), hanging in the forties for the 2nd week in a row. Larry got bit by six double in his round. Double trouble started on hole #2 and continued until hole #6.  He notched his only par on #8 and close out his round with the final double on #9. Good effort Larry. Norm faired a bit worse than Larry, coming in with a (55), two shots worse than last week. Norm got clipped by an opening triple, followed by back to back doubles. The par three gouged him for another triple. Three more doubles did the remainder damage to his round. A valiant  effort Norm.

Team #07: Steve Mitchell (52) / Kyle Kapa (57): Steve  continues to show great improvements to his game, maintaining rounds in the lower 50's, posting a (52) last week. Holes #1 and #3 put him in a big holes to start, posting triples on both, squashing a double in between. He nailed pars on #4 and #9 to help out his round. The 2nd hardest hole on the front, #6 got  him for his 3rd triple. He continues to make tremendous improvements in his game. That's an attaboy from all of the league. Very good round Steve. Kyle made a little improvement in his round, dropping off 3 strokes from last week as he comes in with a (57). He is still struggling to get in down into the lower 50's. The opening hole did the most damage to his round as he started with a quad. It didn't get much better after that. He  got stung by two triples after that, coming on #3 & #4. A couple of more doubles and a bogey finished off his round. A good effort and try Kyle.

Team #8: James Allen (49) / Adam Grewe (Sub Matt W) (56): James went up 5 strokes from last week, coming into the 19th hole with a (49). The double on #2 was sandwiched between bogeys on #1 and #3. After a couple of bogeys on 4 & 5, the bottom dropped out more with doubles on his next three holes. He managed a final bogey on #9. A good try James. Adam wasn't able to attend and Matt W filled in as his sub. Matt came into the clubhouse with a (56) on his card. The opening #1 handicap hole did his round in right from the start with a quad. He managed a bogey on the par 5 second and then got bit by his first of three triples. He doubled the par three and then it looked like he would gain some momentum to get his round back into better shape, posting bogeys on #5 & #6. It just wasn't meant to be after a double bogey on #7, he finished with back to back triples. Good try Matt.

Team #9: Kirk Cejmer (42) / Bill Marsack (42): Kirk continues to pound out some nice rounds since coming back from his two week sabbatical (not by choice though). Kirk comes (42), a couple of shots higher than last week. Kirk posts three doubles, birdies to keep his score down. Kirk got bit by doubles on #2, #6 & #8. He threes, helping to maintain the low forties round. Kirk also posted two into the clubhouse with a that were offset by two nailed birdies on both par pars, one on #3 and the other on #5. Very nice shooting Kirk. Bill knocked a couple of strokes off last weeks round coming in with a out his round slot into 2nd (42). Back to back doubles on 1 & 2 were followed up by 5 pars in a row, He finished with back to back bogeys, but still a really good round Bill. Bill and Kirk move up one place with a 22 point performance.

Team #10: Denny Obenauer (49) / Steve Ciaramitaro (91): Denny continues to maintain rounds in the 50's as he enters the 19th hole with a (49). Denny opened his round with back to back doubles followed by back to back bogeys. Hole number 5 clipped him for yet another double. He bogeyed tough number 6 but got his fourth and fifth doubles, back to back. The doubles came on #7 & #8. Good shooting Denny. Partner Steve's card was riddled with 6 -7 strokes over the hole pars, on most of his holes. He was unable to post any pars or bogeys in his round. A valiant effort and try Steve.

Team #11: Dave Benson (40) / Mike Alessi (61): Dave dropped of 5 strokes from last week, coming into the 19th hole with a very nice 4 over par round of (40), to share best round honors with two other players. After an opening bogey, Dave nailed back to back pars. Hole #4 clipped him for his only double. He took care of the two extra strokes though by nailing birdies on holes #5 & #7. He finished on a little sour note with back to back bogeys. An excellent round Dave. Mike had his worse round of the season, coming into the watering hole with a (61). Nothing seemed to go right for Mike from the opening three holes. They cost him 3 extra shots on each hole. After managing a bogey on #4, the bottom caved in again for Mike. A double was followed by 5 extra shots on hole #6. He put a bogey on the card on #7 but finished with a quad on #9. A very good effort Mike. Dave and Mike continue to maintain 1st place with a 4 point lead as we approach the halfway point in the season.

Team #12: Mike Kove (50) / Rand Hewitt (57): Mike opened his round with back to back and #2 and was on his way to a nice round. That was until the bottom caved in on his holes. He posted back to back doubles before taking a triple on the 2nd par 5. He made the second hardest hole on the course, hole #6. He took a double on #7, bogey on #8 and then a finally a quad on #9, that pretty much did the rest of the few weeks, trying to get it back into the past three weeks. Nothing went right for ple. He posted back to back doubles be-additional strokes on to the card. He valiant effort Rand.

pars on #1 next three par on the damage. A decent round Mike. Rand has struggled the last 40's. He comes into the clubhouse with his 2nd (57) in the Rand from his opening hole. #1 started his round with a tri-fore #4 & #5 did massive damage to his round costing him 8 nailed a par on 7, but took a double on #8 and triple on #9. A Team #13: Mike Littleton (43) / Justin Littleton (48): comes into the watering hole with a (43). Mike got par on #2 and #4, sticking in a bogey on #3. Hole #5 double on the card. He finished his round, with two down in the low forties. Still, nice round Mike. After a couple of low 40's in the upper forties coming in with a (48). Justin stuck in a bogey on #2 between doubles on #1 & #3. He bogeyed #4 and then got bushwhacked by a triple on #5. After a double on 6, he finished the final three holes with two pars and a bogey. Better finish than his start. Good try Justin.

Two doubles cost Mike a lower 40's round as he clipped by was un-bogeys and an opening double. He made kind, just like #1, as he put a two pars, keeping his round round, Justin jumped up in

Team #2: Ray Ressler
Gary Kwapik subbed for bogeyed his way to the next two holes and then nailed a birdie on the second with his only double of the round on the final hole, #9. Walter was certainly off this week and had his worse seven shots higher than last week. He posted triples on his first three holes that pretty much destroyed his round. He had a welcomed bogey on #4 before hole #5 cost him an extra four shots. After a bogey on 6, Walter squashed a triple between doubles on #7& #9. A valiant effort Walter, alias Rain Dr.

(Sub Gary Kwapik (40) / Walter Wnuk (58): Ray was unable to attend golf and him. Gary shared best round honors with two other players in week 6. Gary first par three where he stopped the bleeding by nailing a par. He parred the par three. One more par before Gary was saddled Very nice shooting 'I hate scrambles' Kwapik. round of the season. Walter limped in with a (58),

Team #3: Warren Hood (46) / Wayne Davidson (40): The first two holes put Warren's round in the hole to start as he posted a triple on #1 and double on #2, enroute to his round of (46). After a bogey on 3, Warren nailed pars on #4 and #5. Warren drifted into bogeyland for the next couple of holes. The final hole cost him his 2nd double of the round. A very good try Warren. Wayne posted his best round of the season, sharing best round honors with two other players. Wayne opened his round with a bogey and then nailed three pars in a row. He got bogeyed by number 5 but nailed a very nice par on the 2nd hardest hole on the front. He backed that up with a par on #7, bogeyed #8 and finished positive with a par on #9. Wayne put a (40) on the card in week 6. Great round Wayne.
