TEAM #9 (KIRK CEJMER & BILL MARSACK) TAKE ENOUGH POINTS TO VAULT TO THE TOP OF THE LEADER BOARD!! TEAM #4 JUMPS INTO 2ND PLACE AND TEAM #11 DROPS TO THIRD AS WE ARE ALMOST AT THE HALFWAY MARK OF THE SEASON!!!

Team #05: Rick Berschbach (46) / Chris Dickerson (46):

Chris continues to improve, staying in the mid-forties as he posts his second (46) in a row. The opening hole looked like his round would go down the tubes as he started with a quad on #10. He nailed a birdie on #11 and then bogeyed his way to hole #15, where he stopped the bogeys with a par. Back to back doubles on the final two hole, kept him from a better round. Nice birdie Chris, and good round. Rick has been maintaining the mid forties rounds like his partner, coming in with a (46), a stroke higher than last week. Rick played bogey golf until the 14th clipped him for a double.

He added a couple more bogeys before #17 got him for his second double. He finished with a bogey on the par 5-18th. Good effort and round Rick.

Team #06: Norm Giraud (56) / Larry Ball (47):

Norm has been unable to get his round back into the forties since week 3. Norm limps in with a (56) a shot higher than the previous week. The opening two holes seemed to dictate his round as he posted back to back triples. It didn't get much better on his next two as he got bit by back to back doubles. Hole #14 did the most damage, four extra shots elevated his score even more. He nailed a par on #16, but it was #17 & #18 that cost him 6 more shots. A valiant effort Norm. Larry dropped off two strokes from last week, coming into the watering hole with a sting by an opening triple. After a bogey and double jumped on the bogey train for three holes. He nailed his only par on 16, bogeyed #17 and finished with a double on #18. Good effort and round Larry.

Team #07: Steve Mitchell (sub-Mark M (47) / Kyle Kapa (sub-Tim K (61):

Both Steve and Kyle were unable to attend league last week and had subs play for them. Mark started with a couple of doubles and bogeyed the first par three. A triple followed that and he nailed a par on the tough #14. He finished with bogeys on the final four holes for a round of (47). Good round Mark. Tim opened his round with back to back quads. He nailed his only par on #12. A couple of triples, a quad and five over par on #18 did the damage as he crawled into the 19th hole with a (61). A valiant effort Tim.

Team #08: James Allen (39) / Adam Grewe (sub Matt W (58):

James posted his best round and shared best round honors in week 7 coming into the clubhouse with a (39). James started with a bogey and doubled hole #11. He made a great come-back nailing a par on #12 and then adding birdies on #13 and #14. Hole #15 stuck him for a double. He nailed pars on #16 and #18, sticking in a bogey on #17. Great round James. Matt subbed for the second week in a row and comes into the clubhouse with a round of (58). After opening #10 with a triple, Matt put three straight bogeys on the card on #11, #12 and #13. Then the bottom dropped out quickly as he posted back to back quads. His final three holes were equally as bad, posting a double, a quad and a final triple for a Good try Matt.

Team #09: Kirk Cejmer (44) / Bill Marsack (47):

Kirk continues to post lower 40's rounds as he coasts into the 19th hole with a (44). He started his round with a par on #10 and then put a bogey on the card on #11. He took his first of two doubles on #12 and posted his second and final par on #13. It was bogey land until he reached #17 that clipped him for his final double. He ended on a sour note with a bogey on #18. Still a decent round Kirk. Bill opened his round with a double on #10 and then back to back bogeys on his next two holes. Hole #13 was very unkind to Bill as he took a triple on the hole. He nailed his first of two pars on #14. Back to back doubles and a bogey on #18 did the balance of the damage to his round. He did nail a par on the hardest handicap hole on the back, hole #17 to post a round of (47). Good effort Bill.

Team #10: Denny Obenauer (43) / Steve Ciaramitaro (72):

Kudos to Denny for his best round of the season as he comes in with a (43). After an opening double, Denny put it together with a par on #11 and birdie on #12. Denny posted back to back doubles on #13 & #14. A bogey on #15 was followed by a par on #16. A final double on #17 and a bogey on #18 for a very nice round. Good shooting Denny. Steve's round was riddled with quads on three holes. He posted 5 over par on three more holes and got stung by 6 over par on #10. He managed a bogey on #12. Good Try Steve.

TWO PLAYERS LEAD THE WAY INTO THE CLUBHOUSE WITH UNDER FORTIES ROUNDS ~JAMES ALLEN AND RAY RESSLER POST 4 OVER PAR ROUNDS OF [39] TO TAKE BEST ROUND HONORS!!

Team #11: Mike Alessi (50) / Dave Benson (46):

Mike rebounded from last weeks terrible round, dropping 11 strokes in the process. The first two holes pretty much told the tale as he got burned by back to back doubles to post a round of (50). He stuck another double on #13 between bogeys on #12 & #14. He got bit by his fourth double on #15. A bogey on #16 was followed up by a triple on #17. Mike finished with a bogey on the par 5 - 18th. A very admiral try Mike.

Dave also had his fair share of problems as he comes into the watering hole with a round of (46). Dave started good with a par on #10. A bogey followed and then a double ended up on his card on #12. It got promising again as he nailed his second par on #13. Hole #14 did major damage to his round, costing him four extra shots. He notched back to back pars on #15 & #16 before a bogey got him on #17. The final hole did the rest of the damage as he took a triple on the final hole. Good try Dave.

Team #12: Rand Hewitt (60) / Mike Kove (50):

Rand is still struggling and jumped out of the 50's rounds as he limped in with a (60) in last weeks round. His first two holes did a lot of damage as it cost him a triple on #10 and quad on #11. He nailed a very nice par on #12 and then got stung for the second time with a triple and quad on holes #13 & #14. After a bogey on #15, the round went south again. The card showed a triple on #16, five extra shots on #17 and a double on the final hole, the par 5-18th. A valiant effort Rand. Mike matched his last weeks round with another (50). Three triples did enough damage to keep Mike from dropping back in the forties as he did two weeks ago. Holes # 10, #13 & #18 all took their toll on his round. Mike nailed a great birdie on hole #14, making an approach shot to within 8' of the hole and then draining the putt. A couple of doubles, one on #15 and the other on #17 did the rest of the damage to his round. A very nice effort Mike.

Team #13: Justin Littleton (50) /

Mike Littleton (42): Justin has had some troubles his last few weeks as a couple of triples and a double crippled his round. The opening bogey on #10 did sting as much as the triple that followed on #11.

Justin bogeyed his way to hole #14, and then posted back to back doubles on #15 and #16. The seventeenth hole did triple damage to his round and #18 cost him a bogey. Justin finished with a round of (50). A valiant effort Justin. Mike continues to play well and comes into the 19th hole with a nice (42). Mike nailed an open-stuck a ing par and the tween double on #12 be- He bogeys on 11 & 13. and nailed pars on #15 #18, posting bo- geys on the remainder of the holes. A very decent round Mike.

Team #14: Steve Fleck (55) / Ernie Danos (50):

The first two holes did massive damage to Steve's round and kept him from a much better round. An opening quad and then 5 additional strokes on #11 started his round out in a big hole. Steve nailed a par on #12 and bogeyed #13. Steve then got into double trouble on the next 5 holes that gave him a round of (55). A very nice try Steve. It wasn't your best round but you did knock off three strokes from last week. Ernie dropped a stroke off his last weeks round coming into the clubhouse with a (50). The cost Ernie first three holes posted a double on #10, triple on #11 and double on #12. After a bogey on #13, Ernie got swatted but a triple on good old #14. He nailed a par on #15 and bogeyed his next two holes. He finished with a double on #18. Good effort Ernie.

CONTINUE TO KEEP ANDRE VIGER AND BRIAN DERITA IN YOUR PRAYERS. ANDRE AND BRIAN ARE RECOVERING AND DOING WELL AS CAN BE EXPECTED AS BOTH HAD SOME MAJOR SURGERY.

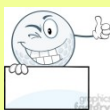

Team #02: Walter Wnuk(51) / Ray Ressler (39):

I am beginning to believe we need to replace hole #10 with another hole as it seems to take its toll on many of the golfers. Walter started this hole with an opening triple to get in the hole right from the start. He rebound a bit with back to back bogeys, before holes #13 & #14 did double and triple damage. Hole #13 cost him a double and #14 cost him his second triple. He nailed a nice par on #15. After a double on the par three sixteenth, Walter posted a bogey on tough #17. He finished with his third triple on #18, finishing with a (51). A valiant effort Walter. Ray got bit by an opening double on #10, but put it together for two holes, nailing back to back pars on #11 & #12. Ray put a bogey on the card on #13 and then got on a par train for four holes, taking him to #18. That one cost him a final bogey and Ray finished with a (39) to share best round honors with another player. Good shooting Ray.

Team #03: Wayne Davidson (40) / Warren Hood (40):

Both players posted identical scores in their rounds in week 7 and continue to hang on to 4th place. Wayne was spot on right from his opening drive and nailed pars starting at #10 and stopping at #13, just to drain a birdie on hole #14. After a bogey on #15, Wayne got burned by a quad on the par three sixteenth.

One more bogey and finishing up with a par on the par 5-18th to end his round on a good note and a Very nice round Wayne.

Warren likewise posted a nice round of (40) in week 7. Warren started rough, posting a double on hole #10. After a bogey on #11, Warren put back to back pars on the card. He added three more bogeys from #14 to #16. He nailed a great par on #17 and finished on a birdie note on hole #18. Great finish and nice round Warren.

Team #05: Brent Cymbalski (40) / Andre Viger (sub-Don Dutton (52):

Brent opened with back to back pars on #10 and #11 before the first par three clipped him for a bogey. After notching a par on #13, number 14 gouged his round for his only double. He bogeyed #15 & 16 and then finished on a strong note posting back to back pars on #17 and #18. Great finish and very nice round Brent. Don subbed for Andre in week 7 and comes into the watering hole with a (52). The first hole did the most damage to his round as it cost him 5 extra shots on the hole. He squeezed in a par on #12 between a double on #11 & triple on #13. Like so many others, #14 got him for a double. He recovered a bit with back to back bo-geys on #15 & #16. Don finished with a double on #17 and bogey on #18. Good effort and round Don.
