TEAM #09 (BILL MARSACK & KIRK CEJMER) HAVE COMPANY AT THE TOP AS TEAM #04 (BRENT CYMBALSKI & ANDRE VIGER) AS WE HEAD FOR THE END OF THE FIRST HALF OF THE SEASON!!!

Team #06: Larry Ball (49) / Norm Giraud (57): Larry is starting to stay in the forties as he comes in with a (49), two shots higher than last week. Three holes took the most toll on his nipped him with doubles. most of the wind out of cost him four extra shots Larry posted his only par a decent round Larry. Good effort. Norm's round continue to climb up instead of going down. Norm came in with a (57) this than last week. 2 pretty much set round. The third hole knocked him back further with a triple. He salvaged a bogey on #4 before the 2nd par 5 added another double. Hole six turned into a huge disaster as he added a quad. The final three holes added up to an additional 8 strokes with a quad on #8 surrounded by double on #7 & #9. A valiant effort Norm.

Team #07: Steve Mitchell (57) / Kyle Kapa (62): Steve had a few going up 5 ago, limping in cap hole got him posted a bogey more problems this week strokes from two weeks with a (57). The #1 handi-for an opening double. He continued top right

Just wondering where James was last week as he came into the 19th hole ten shots worse than last week. James finished with a (49). He started pretty fair, posting a bogey on the 1st hole and nailing a par on the first par 5. He continued to play well, nailing a birdie on #3. The par three 4th could have had some water troubles as he posted a triple on the hole. After the bogey on #5, three holes did the balance of the damage. He surrounded the triple on #7 between doubles on #6 & #8. He finished his round with a bogey on #9. Good try James.

Team #09: Bill Marsack (46) / Kirk Cejmer (46): Bill dropped off a stroke from last week coming in with a (46). Bill stuck in a par on #2 between doubles on #1 & continued top right pane on the par 5 - 2nd and then the 3rd hole clipped him for a quad. Back to back doubles plagued his round even more as he posted them on #4 & #5. The tough #6 only cost him a bogey, but then the next three holes did the balance of damage to his round. He finished with a double, triple and quad. Good try Steve. Kyle likewise had some major trouble in his round too, as he went up 5 strokes from his previous round coming in with a (62). The first two holes bushwhacked his round as he posted 5 extra shots on both holes. The double seemed like a relief until #4 cost his a triple. He bogeyed the par 5 - 5th and then #6 gouged him for a quad. He nailed a par on #7 and then finished with a double and quad. A valiant effort Kyle.

Team #08: Adam Grewe (56) / James Allen (49): Adam was absent for two weeks and went up four strokes from his previous round on 6/3. Two holes, #1 and #4 really beat up his round costing him 11 extra strokes just for those two holes. He nailed his only par on #5. He added two more doubles and finished off the rest of his card with bogeys. Adam finished with a (56). Good try Adam.

#3. He bo- geyed his way to #5 and then got bit by a double. He made a decent recovery with back to back pars on #7 & 8 before finishing with a double on #9. Good round Bill. Kirk also came into the clubhouse with a (46). Kirk posted an opening bogey and then proceeded to notch back to back to back pars taking him to #5, where he put a bogey on the card. Hole #6 started the downfall to his round with a triple. A bogey on #7 and the final two holes took him for back to back dou-bles keeping his round in the mid forties instead of the lower round Kirk. Bill and Kirk have company at the top as Team #04 (Brent & Andre) are in a tie with them for first.

Team #11: Dave Benson (43) / Mike Alessi (50):

Dave started out with bogey on 1 and got clipped by a double on #2. He put back to back bogeys on the card before stopping that with a par on #5. It seems like hole #6 always has a way of messing up a round, and it got Dave for a double. Dave made a great recovery nailing pars on his Continued top right final three holes to shoot a decent round of (43). Very nice round Dave. For the second week in a row, Mike comes in with a round of (50). He back to back doubles to start, but nailed a par on #3 to put a temporary stop to the double trouble until the par three got him for another double. He posted a couple more bogeys, but finished his round with back to back doubles that cost him a chance to get back into the 40's. A very nice effort and

Team #12: Mike Kove (51) / Rand Hewitt (58):

Mike went up a stroke from last week, coming into the watering hole with a (51). Mike of triples and dou-damper on his with back to back #2. He put up a bogy on #3 and nailed his first of two pars. The second par 5 got him for a double that was followed by a triple on good old #6. The final two holes did the final damage with a double and triple on #9. A valiant effort Mike. Rand got his round back down into the upper 50's, coming into the clubhouse with a (58) last week. It was progress although he had some tough holes. He trapped a continued below left double between triples on hole number 1 and 3. After posting a bogey on #4, hole #5 dug deeper into his round as he posted a quad. Hole #6 bit him for a double before stopping the bleed with a bogey on #7. The final two holes sunk his round deeper with a double followed by a quad. A good try Rand.

Mike. Keep up the good rounds. Justin got his round back down into the mid 40's coming in to the 19th hole with a bogey golf three of nailed pars on both 2 and 5. He was posted a bogy, on dropped out on final three holes. He on the final three holes to finish a bit of a sour note. Still a nice comeback from a couple of tough weeks previously. Good effort and try Justin.

Any body up for a nice swim in the pond??

PLEASE CONTINUE TO KEEP ANDRE AND BRIAN IN YOUR PRAYERS IN YOUR PRAYERS FOR CONTINUED HEALING!!!

Team #14: Ernie Danos (49) / Steve Fleck (58): Ernie dropped back into the forties after a couple of weeks in the 50's. Ernie finished his round with a (49). He posted three double bogeys by the time he got to hole #6. That hole was friendlier to him than several of the other players in the league as he posted a bogey. He nailed his only par on #7, then got stung by a triple on #8 and then finished with a bogey on #9. Decent round Ernie. For the third time out of the last four rounds, Steve limped into the clubhouse with a round of (58). The opening double as the quad on #2. double before he first par three, hole #6 sunk his round even deeper as he got saddled by a triple on #5 and then added an additional 5 strokes over par on #6. After a bogey on #7, Steve finished with back to back triples. Good try Steve.

Team #5: Chris Dickerson (50) / Rick Berschbach (42):

After three weeks in the 40's, Chris fell off a bit coming in with a (50). Chris started with a bogey on #1 and nailed a par on #2. Then things went a triple on #3 and put his round in trouble. After a bogey on #6, he finished off the round with a double #7 and back to back bogeys on the final two holes. A very good effort Chris. After three straight weeks of mid-forties, Rick brought round three strokes from last week. Rick comes into the clubhouse with a (42). Rick started his round post-straight bogeys before putting a par on #4. He again got back to back bogeys before stopping that again with a par. He finished off his round with one more bogey and a final par on #9. Very nice shooting and round Rick.
