

NO CHANGE AT THE TOP IN WEEK 9 AS TEAM #9 AND TEAM #4 TAKE THE SAME AMOUNT OF POINTS TO REMAIN TIED FOR FIRST PLACE!!

Team #07: Kyle Kapa (60) / Steve Mitchell (58):

Kyle on the other hand, dropped strokes from coming into the house with a first two holes pretty much dictated a higher round. Kyle found 5 extra strokes on #10 and added three more on #11. After a bogey on 12, a double, a quad and triple showed up on the card on 13, 14 & 15. A bogey on 16 and then 17 cost Kyle a double. The final hole did the rest of the damage. A valiant effort Kyle. After a couple of weeks in the lower fifties, Steve has stayed in the upper fifties the last two weeks. Steve limped in with a (58). After the opening quad, Steve posted a triple on #11. He leveled out some, posting bogeys on 12 & 13. Hole #14, what can I say, it took him for 3 extra shots over par. The final three holes did the rest of the damage, a double on 16 and 17 and a triple on 18. Good try Steve.

Team #8: James Allen (46) / Adam Grewe (64):

James dropped off three strokes from last week, coming into the hole with a (46). After an opening bogey, James nailed back to back pars to help the round. He squeezed a double on 14 between bogeys on 13 & 15. The bogey didn't hurt as much as the triple on 17 and double on 18 to finish his round. A nice effort James. Adam certainly had his fair share of problems in week 9. He got bit by two doubles to open the round, and then got stung by a triple on the first par 3. The next two holes did some massive damage, as Adam took 5 extra shots on 14 and 4 extra shots on 15. The final three holes cost him 11 additional strokes. Adam finished with a (64). A valiant effort Adam.

After an opening bogey,

Team #9: Kirk Ceimer (49) / Bill Marsack (43):

Somebody other than Kirk up and for him into the ing hole (49). He in the with back to back doubles on 10 & 11. He made a slight recovery nailing a par on #12. After a bogey on 13, the double trouble came back to back on his card, posting them on 14 & 15. I think Kirk had double-it is as his final two holes were again back to back doubles. A valiant effort Kirk. Bill on the other hand, dropped three strokes off last weeks round posting a decent round of (43). Bill most-ly played a bogey round. He did get whacked by a couple of doubles. One came on #14 and the other

17. Bill notched 3 posted those on three's and narrow 15. All in all a nice Bill.

Team #10: Denny Obenauer (47) / Steve Ciaramitaro (84): Denny played a pretty decent round as he comes into the clubhouse with a round of (47). Three holes did the damage that kept him from shooting in the lower forties. Hole number 11 cost triple. The real culprit that dragged his down the most was the quad on #14. He nailed three pars in his round. Hole #12 and then back to back pars on 16 & 17.

Good shooting Denny. Keep up the good shooting. Steve continues to struggled and really limped in with an (84). Steve's round was riddled with several quads. He had a couple of holes that he exceed double par plus some. He is just struggling to make good contact on his shots. An admirable try Steve.

Team #11: Mike Alessi (54) / Dave Benson (49): Mike and Dave moved up the standings ladder 1 spot to 3rd position. Mike got off to a rough start, getting bit by back to back triples. It didn't get much better as his next cost him Hole #15 triple of the round. The final two holes, the two lowest handicap holes were his best holes as he posts back to back bogeys. Good effort and round Mike. Dave went up 6 strokes from last weeks round, coming in with a (49). The opening double started his higher forties round. He posted bogeys on the next three holes. Hole 14, well what can I say, but it did massive damage to Dave's round. He was dinged with a quad. He got his only par on 15. He added a triple on 17 with bogeys on 16 and 18. Good try Dave.

The recovery with a bogey on #12 was short lived as he added two more quads, back to back on 13 & 14. Rand put bogeys on 15 & 16 and then the bottom dropped out again. His final two holes cost him an additional 8 strokes. Good effort Ran. Mike had some triple trouble on #10. A bogey on 11 was doubles followed up by on his next three holes. After a bogey on 15, Mike got bit by a double on back quads on 10 & 11. The recovery with a bogey on #12 was short lived as he added two more quads, back to back on 13 & 14. Rand put bogeys on 15 & 16 and then the bottom dropped out again. Team #13: Justin Littleton (44) / Mike Littleton (40): Two holes hurt Justin's chance to get closer to the forties mark, but does come in with a decent round of (44). He opened with a double then went bogey-bogey on his next two holes. He got bit by his second double on hole 13. He went back to bogey until he reached the par three 16th. He notch his first par of the round there, then added another par on #17. Justin finished with a bogey on 18 for a round of (44). Good round Justin. Mike continues to play steady golf, coming in with the second best round of the week, posting a (40) in week 9. After starting with a bogey on #10, Mike took the par number 15, he train to hole 16, and got off m- a bogey on the card. He notched his 5th par on #16 before good old 17 clipped him for a double. Mike finished with a bogey on #18 or he would have posted his second round in the 30's. Very nice round Mike.

Team #14: Ernie Danos (47) / Steve Fleck (abs-HC55): Ernie put his best round of the season together in week 9, coming into the 19th hole with a nice (46). The triple on hole 10 put him three hole to recover with back nailed a par on 13 before 14 took additional toll on his round, costing him a double. He added a bogey on 15 and nailed his second par on the par three 16th. Hole #17 got him for a double and he finished with a bogey on 18. Good round and shooting Ernie. Steve was a no show and a handicap card was used to post against his opponent.

Team #2: Walter Wnuk (47) / Ray Ressler (41): Walter comes into the clubhouse with his best round this season as he put together a (47). He like many others got bit by a double on #10. He stuck a par in on #12 between bogeys on 11 & 13. Hole #14 dug into his round with a double, but he recovered with a bogey on 15. His final three holes kept him from posting a much lower round as he finished with doubles on all three holes. He still played a much better round, dropping 7 shots off his previous weeks round. Nice round Walter. Ray didn't care much for #10 either as he put a double on the card as well. Ray bogeyed his way to 13, where he was able to put a par on the card. Hole #14 clipped him for his second double. He then seemed to put it together, starting on 15 with a par and staying on the train of pars till he finished on 18. Ray comes in with a nice (41) for the second week in a row. Nice round Ray double on the card as well. Ray bogeyed his way to 13, where he was able to put a par on the card. Hole #14 clipped him for his second double. Team #3: Wayne Davidson (43) / Warren Hood (43): Wayne got off to a decent start posting an opening par on #10. He took the bogey train on the next three holes, taking him to one of the most notorious holes that make players round out the course of the season. Hole #14, it has done to so many others, costing him a double. He managed a par on 15, before finding a bogey on hole 16. Hole 17 got him for his second double, but he made a nice recovery posting a par on the final hole to finish with a decent round of (43). Nice round Wayne. He finished with his second bogey on #18. Great shooting Brent. Mark Malzahn filled in for Andre's spot and comes into the watering hole with a (48). Three doubles and a triple pretty much sunk Mark rounds from a lower 40's round to an upper 40's. The doubles 10, 13 & 17. 15 cost him a triple.
