

TWO TEAMS ARE TIED FOR 1ST AFTER OUR THIRD WEEK OF COMPETITION: TEAM A4 (MIKE LITTLETON & JUSTIN LITTLETON) AND TEAM A1 (KIRK CEJMER & BILL MARSACK)!!

A3: Wayne Davidson (42) / Warren Hood (44):

For the second week in a row, Wayne comes into the clubhouse with a (42). The hole that kept him from a round under 40's was #5, that stung him for a triple. Wayne nailed a par on #3 and the nailed four pars in a row. He started the run on #6 and finished the par run on #9. Nice round Wayne. Warren seems to be struggling for the second week in a row, but did reduce his strokes from last week by 2. He comes in with a (44). He nailed pars on #3 and #6 and made a very nice birdie on #9. Two most dam-a double on #7. Still a decent round Warren.

A4: Justin Littleton (44) / Mike Littleton (42):

Justin comes into the clubhouse with the second (44) in a row, playing some very nice golf. Justin put together a nice round, nailing three pars along the way. He nailed them on #2, #4 and #8. Holes 5 & 6 beat him up for back to back doubles. Still a very nice effort and round Justin. Mike comes into the 19th hole with a very nice (42), shaving off two strokes from last week. Mike only got bit by one double, that coming on hole #6. Mike notched pars on four holes. He posted one on the #1 handicap hole, #1 and #4, #5 and #9. Very good shooting Mike.

Team A5: Walter Wnuk (51) / Ray Ressler (37):

Walter went up 1 stroke from last week, coming into the watering hole with a (51). He posted several doubles that kept him from posting a round in the forties. He got bit the worst on hole #7, that cost him 3 extra strokes. He took the doubles on hole #3, #5, #6 and #9. Good effort and try Walter. Ray posted his best round of the season, coming in with a 1 over par (37) to take top round honors for both flights. Ray only had two pars, coming on #2 and #4. He nail three birdies in a row. He notched them on #7, #8 and #9. The extra bogey kept him from parring the course. Very nice shooting Ray.

A6: John Grewe (43) / Dan Wicker (41):

John continues to hover in the lower 40's, coming in a stroke higher than last week with a (43). Two holes did the damage to his round that and he could have had a much better round. Holes #2 and 3 bit him for back to back doubles costing him an extra four shots. He did recover with four pars in his round. He nailed them on 1, 5, 7 & 9. All in all it was a very nice round. Good shooting John. Partner Dan dropped off a stroke this week, coming into the clubhouse with a very nice (41). Dan got off to a slow start with a double on 1 and a double on 3. He did start to string together some pars, starting with holes four and five. A couple more bogeys and a solid finish. He nailed his final par on 8 and nailed a very nice birdie on #9. Good finish and round Dan.

Team #A1: Bill Marsack (44) / Kirk Cejmer (42):

Bill had a decent round posting a (44), but double trouble plagued his round on the two hardest handicap holes on the front nine. Hole #1 and dreaded hole #6. Bill put three pars on the card, notching back to back pars on 4 and 5. He added one more on hole number 7. Good round Bill. After a couple of tough rounds in the first two weeks of competition, Kirk put it together this week. He coasts into the 19th hole with a very nice (42). Kirk nailed pars on both par 5's, another on the first par three and then added another one the 2nd hardest handicap hole #6. The balance of the card was filled in with bogeys. Very nice round Kirk.

Team A2: Keith Nickel (47) / Andre Viger (39):

Keith posted his best round in week 3 as he came into the watering hole with a nice (47), dropping off 6 strokes from last week. Keith put two pars on his card. One came on the 3rd hole and the last on #9. He got bit by a triple on #7 to go with doubles on #6 and #8. Good shooting Keith. Andre continues to play well and posts the 2nd best round of the night in the 'A' Flight coming in with a (39). Andre nailed 6 pars in his round. The three holes that showed bogeys were #3, #6 and #9. Very nice shooting Andre.

Team B2: Mike Alessi (52) / Dave Benson (44):

After knocking off three strokes the previous week, Mike knocked off 5 in this weeks round, coming into the clubhouse with a (52). Two triples kept him from posting a round in the forties. He got stung by two triples coming on #3 and #9. He nailed only par on #7. A few doubles and bogeys rounded out his card. Good shooting Mike.

Dave Benson continues to play solid, and posts his second (44) in a row. Dave had double problems on two holes. One came on the #1 handicap hole, #1 and the other, yes you are correct, hole #6. He nailed pars on holes #2, #4 and #9. Bogeys filled in the rest of his card. Good round and shooting Dave.

Team B3: Steve Fleck (54) / Ernie Danos (51):

Both players dropped off strokes from last weeks round. Steve came in with a (54), seven shots better than last week. Holes one and two did extensive damage to his round as he put on back better than last week. Ernie had early troubles on #1, posting an opening triple. He bogeyed his way to #4, where he added a double on the card. Looks like the par three's were not to favorable to him as he took another double on #7. He finished his round with a bogey on 8 and triple on #9. Good try effort Ernie.

Team B4: Norm Giraud (51) / Larry Ball (55):

Norm dropped a stroke off his round from last week, coming into the watering hole with a (51). It was back to back troubles on #1 and #2 for Norm. He bogeyed his way to #5, and #6 where he added back to back doubles. He parred #7 and then finished with a double and triple. Good try Norm, but good job dropping off strokes. Larry had all kinds of trouble this week. He went up 5 strokes, coming in with a (55). Holes one and two only cost him bogeys, but holes #3 and #4 cost him a whole lot more. He put a triple on the card on #3 and a quad on the card for #4. After notching a par on the 2nd par 5, hole #6 gouged him for a quad. He limped in with a final triple on 8 and double on 9. Good try Larry.

Team B5: Pastor Joe DePasquale (62) / Dan D'Amato (47):

Pastor Joe had some major struggles in week 4. His first three holes pretty much dictated his round. He put a quad, and back to back triples on the 1st, 2nd and 3rd holes. He posted doubles and triples the rest of the round, coming into the clubhouse with a 62. A valiant effort Pastor Joe. Dan went up 5 strokes from his first round, coming into the 19th hole with a (47). Dan posted one par, that coming on the first par 5, hole #2. Three holes cost him doubles. They showed up on the card on hole #3, hole #6 and hole #7. The balance of the card was filled in with bogeys. Decent round Dan.

Team B6: Marc Blair (65) / Ryan Atkinson (49):

Marc had some major problems in his round last week as he crawled into the watering hole with a (65). The course was not very kind to him. His card was riddled with triples and quads. He added a couple of doubles that kept his score from going up higher. Marc relayed that he is a new golfer, so his scores will come down the more he plays this game. It was a valiant effort Marc. Keep preserving and you will be rewarded lower scores.

Ryan continues to lower his strokes each week. He dropped on again this week coming in with a (49). Ryan posted a double on #1 before getting into a bogey run on his next two holes. He eliminated the extra strokes with a very nice birdie on #4. The par 5-fifth cost him 3 extra shots and #9 added 4 more. He posted a few bogeys on the rest of the holes. Good round and try Ryan.

Team B7: Dave Stevenson (61) / Mike Marihugh (46):

Dave continues his struggles to get back down into the 50's as he comes in a stroke higher than last week, posting a (61) on the card. It was a struggle from the first hole on. A triple on #1 was followed up with a quad on the first par five, hole #2. He did nail a par on the 2nd par 5, hole #5. He made his only double on #3. The balance of his card was filled in with triples and quads. A valiant effort Dave. Mike continues to hover in the mid 40's and finishes last weeks round with a (46). Mike nailed a nice par on #1 and added another par on #5. Three doubles showed up on the card. Hole #3, hole # 6 and hole #8. If you notice, #6 has a way of taking most of the rounds down on several of our players. He managed to balance his round. Good shooting Mike.

Team B8: Chad Woolman (45) / Mike Rainish (45):

Chad went up 6 strokes from last week as he finished with a round of (45). Two holes clipped him for doubles. Hole #3 and hole #6. Go figure that both holes seemed to take its toll on half the league last week. Chad put two pars on the card. He notched one on #7 and the other on #9. Still a decent round Chad. Good effort. Mike also came into the clubhouse with a (45), adding 4 strokes worse than last week. Mike nailed a birdie on the hole number one and then bogeyed his way to hole number 4. There he took a double, his first of 3 total on number. He only put one par on the card on number 8 to go with the birdie he made on 1. The rest of his card was filled in with bogeys. It was a good effort and try Mike.

Team B1: Kevin Ressler (59) / Rick Berschbach (46):

Kevin struggled in week 4 as he limped into the clubhouse four strokes higher than last week, posting a (59). The 1st, 2nd and 3rd holes did so much damage it would have been very hard to recover. His card was filled with triples and a quad that clipped him on #3. It was a valiant effort Kevin. Practice makes perfect, so a little more will be needed. Rick continues to stay in the mid forties as he comes into the 19th hole with a (46). Rick took bogeys on the #1 and #2 and then got stung by a double on #3.
