After another bogey, this coming on #3, the next two holes put a huge dent on his score. He put a triple on the card on #4 and then doubled hole #5. Hole #1 cost him two extra strokes right from the start. He bogeyed his way to #4 where he nailed his first of two pars. After a bogey on #5, Chad took a double on #6. He added one more par, this came on #8 with bogeys on the card on #7 & #9. Good round Chad.

the books in the position round coming into the watering hole breaking into the forties with a (49). Angel started with a double on #1, then put three bogeys in a row on the card. After #5 clipped him for a double, #6 jarred his round even more with a triple. He made one more double this on hole #7 and finished with a bogey on #8 and par on #9. Nice round Angel. After a disastrous round last week, Mike rebounded with a round six strokes lower than last week. Mike stuck in a bogey on #2 surrounded by doubles on #1 and #3. Hole number 4 got him for a double but he recovered with a par on #5 and #7. He bogeyed #6 and finished on a low note with back to back doubles. Still, great improvements from the previous week Mike. Team #B4: Marc Blair (52) / Doug Busam (Sub-Josh LeBlanc (57)):

Marc posted his best round of the season as he comes into the clubhouse with a (52), getting closer to the forties rounds. His first two holes left a little to be desired as he opened with back to back triples. He bogeyed #3 and put a double on the card on #4. He nailed his first of two pars on the 2nd par 5. Hole #6 cost him another double, but he got some relief with his second par on #7. His final two holes cost him a chance to get into the forties as he took a triple on #8 and double on #9. Great improvements Marc. Good effort and shooting. Doug was absent and Josh LeBlanc filled in as his sub. His first three holes pretty much determined a tough round he was in for. Three triples in a row put him 9 strokes in the hole right away. He put a bogey on his card on #4 and nailed his only par on #5. Hole number 6 cost him 5 extra strokes and hole #8 cost him four more. He welcomed bogeys on #7 and #9. Good effort and try Josh.

Team #B5: Jim Turner (46) / Jim Vance (53):

Jim T continues to play steady golf, hovering in the low to mid forties as he comes into the 19th hole with a (46). Jim T opened with a bogey but got bit by a double on the first par 5, hole #2. Jim T strung together three straight bogeys before stopping them with a par with a nice par on hole #6. Two more bogey and a double to end his round. Still a nice round Jim T. Jim Vance continues to drop strokes off his rounds each week as he comes in with his best round of the season posting a (53), two strokes better than last week. Jim V put a bogey on #2 between doubles on #1 and #3. After a bogey on #4, Jim V got bit by his second triple, this coming on #5. He put a double on the card on #6 and then bogeyed his next two holes, before hole #9 cost him his third triple. All in all a very nice effort and round Jim V.

THE POSITION ROUND CHANGES THINGS AT THE TOP AS TEAM #A8 (DAN D'AMATO & NATE HOOD) CLIMB INTO FIRST PLACE TAKING (20) POINTS TO OVERTAKE TEAM #A1 (JOHN GREWE & DAN WICKER) IN OUR FIRST POSITION ROUND OF THE SEASON!!

Team #A6: Billy Alessandrini (45) / Rick Berschbach (50):

Billy got back into the mid-forties as he dropped four off his last weeks round coming into the clubhouse with a (45). The first hole put damper on his round as he opened with a triple. Billy jumped on the bogey train for the next 5 holes before jumping off to nail a par on #7. One more bogey and a final par on #9 to finish positive. Nice round Billy. Rick went the other way, going up 3 strokes to go into the fifties posting a (50). Three doubles took the steam out of his round. He posted them on #1, #3 & #6. He added five bogeys to the card on holes number 2, #4, #5, #7 and #9. Hole number 7 cost him his only triple. It was a tough round but I am looking forward to him rebounding with a better round next week. Good effort and try Rick.

Team #A7: Chad Woolman (36) / Mike Rajnish (43):

Chad came into the watering hole leading the 'A' Flight in with the best round of the night, a par round of (36). After an opening bogey, Chad got even with a birdie on #2. He parred his way to #6, where he got bit by his second and final bogey. He nailed pars on #7 & #8 and finished of a great round with a birdie on #9 to finish even par. Very nice shooting and round Chad. Mike continues to play steady and comes into the clubhouse with a nice round of (43). Mike started with three straight bogeys before stopping to nail a par on #4. After a bogey on #5, Mike notched his second and final par on #6. He finished his round with three more bogeys to close out his round. Still a nice round Mike.

Team #A8: Dan D'Amato (43) / Nate Hood (47):

Dan and Nate take over first place to end the first half of league play. Dan played a steady round dropping off four strokes from last week. Dan started with a bogey on #1 and then doubled hole #2. He drained a par on #4, sticking it between bogeys on #3 & #5. He then added two more pars, one on #6 and the other on #8. He finished with bogeys on #7 & #9. Nice shooting Dan. After four straight rounds of 46, Nate went up a stroke in week 9 with a (47). Nate nailed an opening par on #1 and then put back to back doubles on his card. After bogeys on #4 & #5, Nate got bit by a triple on #6. He stuck his final double on #8, sandwiched between pars on #7 and #9. Good effort and try Nate.

CHAD WOOLMAN LEAD THE ‘A’ FLIGHT GOLFERS INTO THE CLUBHOUSE WITH A GREAT PAR ROUND OF (36). ANDRE TWO STROKES BEHIND WITH A NICE (38)!! NICE ROUNDS GUYS!!

| Team #A1: John Grewe (42) / Dan Wicker (40): John and Dan played well in week 9's position round but drop into second by two points behind Team #A8. John dropped three strokes off last weeks round coming in with a (42). John started good with back to back pars to get off to a very nice start. Hole #3 cost him a double, but he quickly nailed his third par on #4. After a bogey on #5 and double on #6, John got back into the groove. He bogeyed #7 and finished strong with back to back pars. Nice round and good finish John. Dan has | stayed very consistent this entire season with his fourth (40) of the season. Dan nailed an opening par and took a bogey on the first par 5, hole #2. He then posted three straight pars from #3 thru #5. After putting a bogey on his card on #6, Dan notched another par on hole #7. Hole #8 cost Dan his only double, keeping him from getting back into the thirties. He did finish with a nice par on #9. Good round and shooting Dan. Team #A2: Trevor Vallus (47) / Andre Viger (38): The first two holes | for Trevor told the tale as he opened with a triple and then followed that up with a double on the first par 5. He leveled out a bit, putting a bogey on the card on #3 and notched his first of three pars. Holes #5 and #6 did more double damage to put his round even deeper into the hole. He seemed to regain hold of the round in his last three holes, but a bit too late. He bogeyed number 3 and finish on a strong note with back to back to back pars on #7 & #8. Good try Trevor. Continued below left |
| Andre continues his mastery of the game playing steady golf. Andre got his round started positive with back to back pars before dropping in a bogey on his card on #3. He was solid with pars again starting on #4 and finally stopping his par run on #8 with his second bogey. He finished hole #9 with his seventh par of the round. Another great shooting round Andre. Team #A3: Kirk Cejmer (43) / Bill Marsack (49): Like so many others, Kirk got bit by an opening double hole #1. He nailed his first of five pars on the first par 5-hole #2. After posting a bogey on #3, Kirk put two pars together on #4 & the second par 5, hole #5. Hole number six did | the rest of the major damage, costing him three extra strokes. He recovered well, posting pars on #7 and #9 sticking in a final bogey on #8. Very nice shooting and round Kirk for the second (43) in a row. Team #A4: Wayne Davidson (56) / Warren Hood (43): Wayne continues to struggle to get his game back where it belongs, posting a round two strokes higher that last week, coming in with a (56). His first four holes told the tale of a high round as he posted four straight doubles putting his round 8 stokes in the hole. He found a lone bogey on #5 and then doubled his next three holes adding an additional 6 extra shots on the card. His last hole cost him a quad. A valiant effort | and try Wayne. Partner Warren continues to stay near the lower forties quadrant, coming into the 19th hole with a (43), a shot higher than last week but still a nice round. Warren opened with a bogey on #1 and then doubled the first par 5, hole #2. He then seemed to get on the par-bogey train for the next four holes. He nailed pars on #3 and #5 sticking in bogeys on #4 & #6. He added two additional bogeys on #7 and #8 before finishing with about a 25' par saving put on #9.; A very nice finish and round Warren.  |
| Team #A5: Walter Wnuk (48) / Ray Ressler (45): Walter continues to make progress, keeping his rounds under 50 as he came into the clubhouse with a (48), only one stroke higher than last week. Walter started with back to back bogeys on #1 and #2 before getting stung by his first of three doubles. After notching his first of two pars on #4, Walter added another bogey on the | second par 5-hole #5. He squeezed in his second par on #7, stuck between doubles on #6 & #8. The final hole wasn't very nice as it cost him a triple, but he is definitely making some nice progress in his round. Good shooting Walter. Ray had his troubles this week, going up from the lower forties to the mid forties, limping in three shots higher than last week with a | (45). Ray's round was very bland, starting with a bogey on #1 and jumping on the bogey train for 8 straight holes. He finally got off the train on #9 to post his one and only par. A valiant effort Ray.  |
