TEAM A1 (JOHN GREWE & DAN WICKER) PUT A LITTLE SPACE BETWEEN THEM & TEAM A7 (DAN D'AMATO & NATE HOOD) AS THEY TAKE 22 POINTS IN LAST WEEKS MATCH AND LEAD BY 9 POINTS NOW!!

Team #A1: Dan Wicker (40) / John Grewe (42): Dan got off to a tough start as he got bit by an opening double and followed that up with a bogey on #11. Dan seemed to get back on track with back to back pars. Dan put another bogey on the card on #14 before finishing with pars on 15, 17 & 18 putting a bogey on the card on the par three 16th. Dan finished with a nice round of (40). Dan still playing some consistent upper thirties and low forties. Nice shooting Dan. John posted his second (42) in a row even with a very rough start. John opened his round with back to back doubles that put his round in the hole right from the start. He then nailed a par on #12 and followed that up with a very nice birdie on #13. He bogeyed #14 and then nailed his 2nd par on #15. The next couple of holes put his round back down with a bogey on #16 and double on #17. He finished positive with a par on #18. Still a nice round John.

Team #A2: Andre Viger (40) / Trevor Vallus (44): Andre continues to play steady and comes in with a (40) last week. Andre play bogey-par golf most of the round. He started with back to back bogeys, then went back to back pars on #12 & #13. It was just like the first two holes with bogeys on #14 & #15 before notched two more pars on the par three 16th and tough #17. He finished with a final bogey on #18. Good round Andre. Trevor had his fair share of troubles in last weeks round as he came in two shots higher than last week with a (44). Trevor started with bogeys on his first four holes and then got bit by a double on #14. He notched his only par on #15 and finished with bogeys on his final three holes. Still a decent round Trevor .

Team #A3: Bill Marsack (39) / Kirk Cejmer (40): Bill led all golfers in both flights in with a four over par round of (39), dropping off 5 strokes from last weeks round. This was Bill's best round in league play this year. Bill got off to a one under start after three holes, posting pars on #10 & #12, & sticking in a birdie on hole #11. Hole #13 cost him a bogey, but #14 clipped him for his only double. He recovered nicely with back to back pars on #15 & #16 before closing out his round with back to back bogeys on #17 & #18 Great shooting Bill. Kirk dropped off six strokes from last week as he came into the clubhouse with a nice round of (40). Kirk took back to back doubles on #10 & #11 to get off to a rocky start. He posted a bogey on the first par three, hole #12 before putting a par on the card on #13. He bogeyed #14 and then got into a great rhythm continued below left

BILL MARSACK LEADS THE 'A' FLIGHT INTO THE 19TH HOLE WITH HIS BEST ROUND OF THE SEASON POSTING A 4 OVER PAR (39)!! FOUR PLAYERS A STROKE BACK WITH ROUNDS OF (40) WERE DAN WICKER, ANDRE VIGER, KIRK CEJMER & RAY RESSLER - NICE ROUNDS GUYS!!

The final hole did the rest of the damage with a triple. Still a decent round even though the final hole did his round in. Warren finished with a (44). Wayne made great improvements in his game from the previous week, dropping 7 strokes off and finished with a (45) in week 14. Wayne started with a double on #10 and then bogeyed his way through holes #11 & #12. Wayne then nailed back to back pars on #13 & #14. Team #A5: Ray Ressler (40) / Walter Wnuk (56): Ray comes into the clubhouse with a decent round of (40), even taking an opening triple on hole #10. Ray recovered well, nailing three straight pars to get his round back on track. After a bogey on #14, Ray drained par putts on #15 & #17 sticking in a bogey on the par three 16th. Ray closed out his round with a final par on #18. Good round Ray. This week turned out to be Walter's worse round of the season, crawling into the clubhouse with a (56). Like Ray, Walter got nailed with an opening triple on hole #10. Problem is, that same score followed him to hole #11 with his second triple in a row. It didn't seem to get much better as #12 and #13 cost him back to back doubles. He got stung by another triple on #14 and fifteen cost him his 3rd double. His only relief hole was #16 with a lone bogey as he finished with a double on #17 and final triple on

#18. Valiant effort and try Walter.

Team #A6: Billy Alessandrini (45) / Rick Berschbach (51): Billy got started on #10 with a bogey but took his first of two doubles on #11. After posting bogeys on #12 & #13, hole #14 jumped up an bit him for his second double. He turned it around for a couple of holes, notching back to back pars on #15 & #16. Hole #17 took the most out of his round with a triple but he finished on a positive note with a solid putt for par on #18. Billy finished with a (45), dropping 3 strokes off last weeks round. Good effort Billy. Rick hasn't played much in the last three weeks with him missing last week and the two previous weeks of rainouts and he struggled a bit. Rick comes into the watering hole with a (51). Like many others, hole #10 cost Rick a triple. After the bogey on #11, Rick followed that up with back to back doubles on #12 & #13. He bogeyed #14 but got stung with another double on #15. One more bogey on his card on #16 and a tough finish on #17 & #18 with back to back doubles. Good effort and try Rick.

Team #A7: Mike Rainish (47) / Chad Woolman (42): This was Mike's worse round in the league this year limping in with a (47), four shots higher than his last round. Mike nailed one of the few pars posted on #10 and then took a bogey on #11 and #12, before getting bit by a double on #13. He went back to bogey golf on his next three holes taking him to hole #17. Disaster struck back to back as Mike got saddled with a triple on #17 and double on #18 for a tough finish. A valiant effort Mike. Chad continues to keep his rounds in the upper thirties and lower forties as he comes into the 19th hole with a (42) last week. Chad jumped on the bogey train right from hole #10, posting 5 straight continued below left bogeys on the card. He jumped off to nail a birdie on #15 and followed with a nice par putt on #16. Hole #17 bit him for a triple but he recovered with a solid par on #18. Good round and shooting Chad.

Team #A8: Nate Hood (48) Dan D'Amato (45): Nate was one of few to nail pars on #10, but got his round off to a decent start with that. Hole number 11 wasn't nice to his round as he posted his first of two doubles. He nailed his final par on the first par three, hole #12, and then took his second double on #13. Holes #14 and #17 were very unkind to his round as both holes cost him triples. He finished with bogeys on #15, #16 & #17 for a final score of (48). Good try Nate. Dan's round got off to a very nice start, posting pars on #10 and #11. He put a bogey on the card on #12 and nailed his third par on #13. After #14 cost him a bogey, hole #15 clipped his round for a double. One more bogey showed up on #16 and then it was more trouble for the final two holes. Hole #17 cost him a triple and hole #18 a double that took his round up five additional strokes. Good effort and try Dan.

Team #B1: Mike Marihugh-Sub Kevin Fage (44) / Angel Woodruff (52):

Mike was unable to play and Kevin Fage subbed for him last week, coming in with a nice round of (44). Hole #10 cost Kevin a triple but he recovered quickly with back to back pars on #11 & #12. He bogeyed #13 and got ripped by a double on #14. He notched pars on #15 and #18. He posted a bogey on #16 but took a double on #17. All in all a nice round Kevin. After last weeks tough round, Angel knocked off 6 strokes coming into the clubhouse with a (52). Angel stuck in a bogey on #11 between triples on #10 & #12. He nailed his only par on #13. A bogey on #14 was followed up with a triple on #15. One more bogey, this on #16 was followed by a triple on #17 and a double on the final hole #18. Good effort and try Angel.

Team #B2: Dave Benson (42) / Mike Alessi-Sub Josh LeBlanc (53):

Mike has to bow out of the season due to continuing health issues and Josh LeBlanc will be filling in for him the remainder of the season. Dave Benson continues to post low numbers, leading in the 'B' Flight with a (42). The #10 hole did to him what it did to so many others, cost him extra strokes as he put a double on the card to start his round. He bogeyed #11 and nailed a par on #12. Hole #13 cost him his only triple of the round and then he put it together. He jumped on the par train from hole #14 and got off on #17 to finish his round with a final bogey on #18. Good round and shooting Dave. Josh had bigger troubles to start his round as hole #10 cost him four extra shots as he limped in with a (53). He bogged his way through the next three holes taking him to favorite hole #14 where he got saddled with his second quad. Hole #15 was on a stroke better as he posted a triple. He nailed a par on #16 and took his second triple on #17. Josh finished with a bogey on the par 5 - 18th. A valiant effort Josh.

Team #B3: Steve Fleck (56) / Ernie Danos (52): Steve was in trouble right from the opening drive as hole #10 took him three shots over par to sink the putt. Then #11 cost him 5 extra shots so he was in a deep hole right from the start of his round.
