TEAM A1 (JOHN GREWE & DAN WICKER) CONTINUE TO LEAD THE 'A' FLIGHT HEADING INTO WEEK 10~TEAM A2 (ANDRE VIGER & RAY RESSLER) MOVE INTO 2ND FIVE POINTS BEHIND!!

Team A1: John Grewel (43) / Dan Wicker (40): John seems to be starting to get some of his game back as he comes into the clubhouse with a decent round of (43), a stroke better than last week. The first two holes bit into his round with back to back doubles. After a bogey on #12, John nailed back to back pars on #13 & #14. He added one more par on #16 and posted bogeys on the #15, #17 and #18. Good round John. Dan continues to shoot well and comes in with a nice (40) last week. Dan opened with back to back pars before the first par three nipped him for a bogey. After an par on #13, hole #14 clipped him for a double. He parred #15 and #18, sticking in bogeys on #16 & #17. Very nice shooting Dan.

Team #A2: Ray Ressler (41) / Andre Viger (38): Ray got off to a rough start, posting a bogey on #10 and then adding a double on #11. He recovered nicely posting pars on his next three holes. He posted bogeys on #15, #16 and #17 and finished on a positive note with a par on his hole #18. Ray finished with a nice round of (41). Good shooting Ray. Andre led all 'A' flight players into the 19th hole with a 3 over par (38). Andre knocked off two strokes from last week. Andre got off to a slow start posting bogeys on his first three holes. He jumped on the par express on the next three holes before hopping off on #16 with a bogey. He nailed a nice birdie on #17 and finished with a par on #18. Nice finish and round Andre.

Team #A3: Bill Marsack (51) / Kirk Cejmer (41): Bill had another tough week limping in with a (51), five shots higher than last week. The first hole, dreaded number 10 took the wind out of his sails right from the start as he went 5 strokes higher than par. After a par on #11 and a bogey on #12, things went south again with a triple on #13. He got away with a bogey on #14 but got bit by a double on #15. One more bogey on #16 and #17 got him for a double. He finished with a nice par on #18. Good effort and try Bill. Kirk knocked off 5 strokes from last week with a nice (41). After an opening double, Kirk nailed a birdie on #11. He put bogeys on his card on the next three holes taking him to number 15 where he notched a par. He finished with three more bogeys to close out his round. Very nice round and shooting Kirk.

ANDRE VIGER TAKES TOP ROUND HONORS WITH A VERY NICE THREE OVER PAR ROUND OF (38) DESPITE A WET COURSE!! DAN WICKER A COUPLE SHOTS BEHIND WITH A NICE (40)!

Here are some tips for intermediate golfers:

- Practice your short game: Your ability to get up and down around the greens can have a bigger impact on your score than hitting the ball farther off the tee.

- Alignment: Choose an intermediate target on an imaginary line between the ball and your intended target. You can also try aiming the face of the club and aligning your body.

Team #A4: Warren Hood (42) / Jim Turner (Sub-Jim Koss (52): Warren put a nice round together posting a (42), knocking off 7 strokes from last week. Warren stuck in a par on #11, trapped between bogeys on #10 and #12. Holes number 13 & 14 cost Warren a possible under forties round as he posted back to back doubles. He finished very strong posting pars on the final three holes. Nice finish and round Warren. Jim Koss filled in for Jim Turner and comes into the watering hole with a (52). The first two holes dictated a tough round with back to back doubles. After a bogey on #12, hole #13 cost Jim three extra strokes over par. Holes #14 and #15 did to him what the first two holes did with back to back doubles. A bogey on #16 and a triple on #17 did the rest of the damage and a bogey on the final hole ended his round. A valiant effort Jim.

Team #A5: Doug Busam (46) / Dave Benson (Abs-HC 44): Doug faired a little better this week than last week and shaved off three strokes on his round posting a (46). The first two holes put his round in the hole right away as he posted an opening triple followed by a double on #11. It looked his round had a very promising outlook as Doug nailed back to back pars on #12 & #13. Holes #14 and #15 took more toll on his round with back to back doubles. He did nail a very nice par on #17 just missing a birdie attempt. He finished with a final bogey on #18. Still a valiant try and effort Doug. Dave was out of town and a handicap card was used to post against his opponent.

Team #B6: David Pyche (45) / Al Rossi (sub Mike Rajnish (47):

After the first three of four rounds in upper 30's at the start of the season, David has struggled to get back into them. David came into the clubhouse with a (45). The first hole, #10, got his round off to a triple bogey start and he didn't seem to recover much at all. He jumped on the bogey train and stayed on it for the next 7 holes. He climbed off it on the final hole posting a welcome par. Good try David. Mike Rajnish filled in for Al Rossi and had his fair share of troubles as well. Mike came into the clubhouse with a uncharacteristic (47) last week. Like his partner David, Mike took a triple bogey on hole number 10. He bogeyed his way to hole number 13, where he posted his first of three pars.

Hole number 14 wasn't very nice to his round as he took a double to add more strokes on his total score. He bogeyed hole #15 and then added back to back doubles on #16 and #17. He closed out his round on a positive nailing a final par on hole number 18. A good effort and try Mike.

OUCH!!!

TEAM #B2 (NATE HOOD & DAN D'AMATO) FIND THEMSELVES TIED FOR THE TOP SPOT AS TEAM #B4 (MIKE MARIHUGH & ANGEL WOODRUFF) TAKE 22 POINTS AND MOVE INTO A TIE AT THE TOP IN WEEK #9!!!

Team #B1: Chris Offer (53) / Brad Carron (53): With Dennis out for the remainder of the season with his shoulder surgery, Brad Carron takes over for him in the league. And we want to welcome him and hope he enjoys himself in the league. Chris Offer finished his round with a (53) for the third consecutive week in a row. The first two holes pretty much told the tale as he got whacked by a quad and a triple on #10 & #11. After a bogey on #13, Chris got bit by a double and then #14 put him 5 more strokes in the hole. He did recover with bogeys on his next three holes and nailed his only but welcome par on #18. Good effort Chris. Brads first round in the league was a tough one as he limped in with the same score as his partner Chris, a (53). His first three holes cost him 9 extra strokes over par with a quad, double and triple. After a little recovery with a bogey on #13, hole #14 clipped him for his second quad. Holes #15 & #16 gave him some relief as he notched back to back pars. He finished with a double on #17 and bogey on #18. A valiant effort and try Brad. Things will get better as you get used to the course. Welcome to the Men's Christian Golf League.

May God Smile

Team #B2: Nate Hood (48) / Dan D'Amato (sub Trevor Vallus-46): The last few weeks have been a struggle for Nate as he cannot seem to get his rounds back down to the lower forties. Nate comes in with a (48), a stroke higher than last weeks round. The opening hole, #10, did triple damage to start. After a bogey on #11, Nate nailed his first par on #12 and posted his only other par on #16. Holes #13 & #14 bit more into his round with back to back doubles. He put bogeys on his card on #15 and #17 before finishing his round on #18 with his second triple. Good try Nate. Trevor Vallus filled in for Dan D and faired a little better than Nate coming in with a (46). After the opening triple on #10, Trevor strung together back to back pars on #11 & #12. He bogeyed his next two holes before hole #15 jumped up an bit him for another triple. He notched his third par on #16 and the put a final double on the card on #17 finishing hole #8 with a bogey. A valiant effort Trevor.

Team #B3: Steve Fleck (51) / Ernie Danos (Abs-HC-50): It was nice to see Steve turn it around coming in with a nice (51), dropping off seven strokes from last weeks round. Sure, hole number 10 got him like so many others as he took an opening triple. He put a bogey on the card on #11 and notched a very nice par on #12. Hole #13 clipped him for a double but he salvaged a bogey on tough number 14. The next three holes cost him a good chance to hit the forties by all three holes took triple toll on his round costing him 9 additional strokes to his round. He finished on a positive with a nice par on his final hole. Still a decent round Steve. Good shooting. Ernie was absent and a handicap score card was calculated to post against his opponent.

Team #B4: Angel Woodruff (50) / Mike Marihugh (46): Angel posts his best round of the season with a (50), shaving off three strokes from last weeks round. He continues to steadily bring down his round scores. His first three holes pretty much put him in a hole posting an opening double on #10, triple on #11 and double on #12. After a bogey on #13, Angel got bit by another double on hole #14. He nailed a nice par on #15 before getting clipped by two more doubles on #16 and #17. He finished his round with a final bogey on #18. All in all, a nice round Angel. Mike continues to stay in the forties for the second week in a row coming into the watering hole with a nice (46). Two holes took the most toll on his round. Hole number 10 cost him a double and hole #13 a triple. He only posted one par, coming on hole number 15. All the other holes were filled in with bogeys to keep him in the mid forties round. He and Angel have fought hard the last three weeks and have moved into a tied for first place after week 9.

Team #B5: Jason McKeown (44) / Jeff Schultz (45):

Jeff and Jason have climbed up two spots in the last couple of weeks moving into third place a mere 8 points behind co-leaders Team B2 & Team B4. Jason posts his second (44) in a row in his third week of league play. Jason stuck a bogey between doubles on #10 and #12. He reduced one of the extra strokes by nailing a birdie on hole #13 and followed that up with back to back pars on #14 & #15. He put back to back bogeys on his card on #16 & #17 before getting bushwhacked by a triple on the par 5 - 18th hole. Very nice shooting Jason. Jeff is also starting to bring his scores down, dropping three strokes off last weeks round and coming into the clubhouse with a nice (45). Jeff played a very steady round. He opened with back to back bogeys and notched his first par on #12. He bogeyed #13 and then got bit by his first of two doubles on #14. Yes, the other double came on the #1 handicap hole on the back, #17. He nailed his second par on #15. Other than that, he put bogeys on the card on the rest of the holes. Very nice shooting Jeff.

Team #B6: Bill Davidson (55) / Wayne Davidson (50):

Bill hasn't been able to get back into the forties since the opening four weeks of the season and struggle again in week 9 posting a (55), five shots higher than last week. Bill stuck a triple on #11 that was sandwiched between doubles on #10 & #12. It looked promising with the par on #13 but then things went south again. Bill put a double on the card on #14 and then triple bogeyed hole #15. The par three gouged him for a quad. He finished on more sore notes with back to back doubles on #17 and #18. A valiant effort and try Bill. Wayne went up four strokes from last week, coming into the watering hole with a(50). Wayne got stung right away on hole #10 with an opening double. Things didn't get much better on the next two holes as he took back to back triples. He stuck in another double on #14, between pars on #13 & #15. He added back to back doubles on #16 & #17 before closing out his round with a final bogey on #18. Good effort and try Wayne
